

COUNCIL WILL BE ASKED TO AID THE NEW HOSPITAL

A City Levy For the Purpose to Be Sought If the Law Will Permit of Making It.

A CONFERENCE WAS HELD UPON THE SUBJECT

H. A. Keffer, A. S. Young and Frank Milligan, trustees of the hospital association, by appointment met Mayor Weaver and City Auditor Willis Davidson at the city hall this afternoon on business of much importance. The gentlemen asked for assistance in getting council to make an annual appropriation for the maintenance of the hospital.

That the hospital will need money to keep it open is a certainty. Realizing this, the trustees grasped the idea of applying for aid and they feel that there is a provision of the code which gives council the authority to make a levy for that purpose. City Solicitor Davidson has been asked to investigate the code as it relates to hospitals and upon his decision will definite action be taken toward securing the assurance of council that an appropriation will be made.

It is argued that the councilmen will not have the right to grant the request. A city official states that a levy cannot be made by the city for a corporation that is in no wise connected with the city. On the other hand it is argued that the institution is a public one and should be supported to a certain extent by the city. There are a number of hospitals in the state that are being partially supported by the city government, and it is contended that the same plan can be made applicable to the local hospital.

The councilmen are strongly in favor of lending a helping hand to the hospital, and if there is any plan to be adopted whereby the assistance can be given they will be a unit in supporting it. The hospital is conceded by every one to be a long-needed acquisition to the city and is to be prized by the citizens in general.

Mayor Weaver and the city auditor could give the trustees no definite assurance of council's action, but promised them that they would make intercession for them and in so doing they will have all the people with them.

The vote for the several candidates for auditor at the recent county primaries, as compiled from the returns, shows that McDonald led his next competitor between 800 and 900 votes. Stuebenville, March 29.—Congressman C. L. Weems dominated the Republican county convention and meeting of the county committee here yesterday. He elected R. Gilson chairman of the latter, and Isaac Vorhees was chairman of the county convention. The resolutions endorsed the Panama canal project, the anti-trust decision of the supreme court, Congressman Weems, Senators Connell and Heinlein, Representative Jones, President Roosevelt, W. G. Shotwell for supreme judge and P. A. Laubie for circuit judge.

The delegates to the state convention are: D. J. Sinclair, M. N. Duval, Sweeney, J. A. Mansfield, A. C. Jones, W. R. Alban, Robert McGowan, Ben Berner, Frank Murphy and E. D. Eakin.

ALLEGED TO HAVE ELOPED TO GERMANY

Beaver County Man Landed in Jail After a Trip to Europe and Return.

Beaver, March 29.—Joseph Dobner, who is alleged to have eloped with the wife of Stephen Maurer, a Moon township farmer, was landed in jail yesterday at the instigation of the husband, to await the action of the grand jury. It is alleged that Dobner and Mrs. Maurer eloped to Germany last October, returning only recently. They were seen together recently in Monaca.

It is alleged Mrs. Maurer said her mother in Germany was ill and by that plea induced Maurer to place a $500 mortgage on his farm, to supply her with funds. Dobner is said to have also raised money at the same time and joined the woman in Pittsburgh, sailing later from New York. All efforts thus far to locate the woman have failed.

SHIELDED HIS WIFE AND WOULD NOT TALK

Stuebenville Man Died the Alleged Victim of a Wound His Wife Gave Him.

Stuebenville, March 29.—Jasper Wind died yesterday from a wound said to have been inflicted by his wife, on December 18, when she plunged a penknife into his leg. The blade scraped an artery and Wind had an operation performed at West Penn hospital. He returned home presumably well, but he soon became worse and died yesterday.

Mrs. May Wind has disappeared. Her husband before his death would not talk about the occurrence and tried to shield his wife.

NEW TELEPHONE LINE

Contract Let For Its Construction in Fairfield Township, This County.

Columbiana, March 29.—(Special.)—The Fairfield Township Mutual Telephone company, recently organized in Fairfield township in the rural district south of here, has let the contract for the construction of the line to E. J. Longanecker & Bro.

The Columbiana Lumber company will furnish the poles, and work will be commenced as soon as material can be secured.

John Allison Free But Crippled. John Allison, notorious because of his mania for other people's horses and chickens, was released from the Canton workhouse on last Thursday and is now in the city. He is in a deplorable condition, being paralyzed in the face and the left side of his body.

GASKILL IN TROUBLE A SECOND TIME

Young Man Who Recently Got Out of the Workhouse Behind Bars Again.

Albert P. Gaskill, of Parkersburg nativity, who was arrested in the city two or three months ago for stabbing an attendant at the Taylor hospital and who was released from the workhouse at Canton on last Saturday, where he paid the penalty of the crime, was arrested again last evening. Officer Todd took him in charge at about 1 o'clock this morning and gave him a cell at the city jail.

Gaskill was charged with being drunk and there was also suspicion of his attempting to break into a house on Third street. The latter charge was not preferred against him, however. He pleaded guilty to the former and the mayor imposed the customary fine. He will rest it out in jail.

VILE LANGUAGE IN HIS LETTER

J. Ernest Spence Fined $50 and Costs For What He Wrote.

GRAVER CHARGES LIKELY

After a secret investigation of nearly nine months, U. S. Cunningham a few days ago secured evidence sufficient to uphold him in having a warrant issued for the arrest of J. Ernest Spence. Though the charge against Spence is a grave one, Cunningham announces that he is ready to prefer a much more serious one and it is likely that there will be something doing in the court of Squire McCarron before the case is settled.

Spence was arrested last evening by Special Detective Charles Gill. He was taken before Justice McCarron this morning and pleaded guilty to a charge of displaying writing and lewd pictures which, for downright turpitude, eclipse anything ever brought to light in the court of any local justice. The writing must have been done when the young man was devoid of his full senses. None but one in the lowest state of depravity would write or even think of the language used in the letters produced by Cunningham.

The letters were written to the wife of Cunningham, who, it seems, is greatly infatuated with Spence. She certainly is, or she would have rebelled against receiving such words. It is said, however, that they did not offend her, as she evidently answered them all. Cunningham also accuses his wife and Spence of other unlawful acts, but he is willing to drop the other charges if Spence will only leave the city for good. He states that the first time he noticed any intimacy between the couple was last July and that he has been working on the case ever since.

Squire McCarron stated that the case was the worst that he ever entertained and imposed a fine of $50 and costs on Spence, who will stand committed until the amount is paid.

When Spence succeeds in gaining freedom from the clutches of local authorities, it is very likely that he will be forced to face a charge before a United States court. The postal officers are apt to arrest him for sending indecent literature through the mails and, if they do, he bids fair to spend many a day behind prison bars.

Jailed for Bad Actions.

Lisbon, March 29.—(Special.)—Charles Wilt, colored, and Sadie Hudleston were brought to the county jail yesterday from Columbiana, having been bound over in the sum of $100 each, in the court of Justice Stanton Thomas for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

NEW EXCHANGE WILL BE BUILT

Bids Are Being Received on Telephone Company Building.

PROJECTED A LONG TIME

Present Quarters Are Inadequate and the New Structure Is Greatly Needed By the Bell Company—To Be Finished This Season.

The proposed new building of the Bell Telephone company to be erected at the corner of Drury lane and Market street will likely be under construction before the coming of summer. Bids are to be received for the complete contract one day of this week and it is said the company will require the building to be finished in as short a time as possible. Architects in Pittsburgh completed the plans and specifications a few days ago and all is ready for the lowest bidder to commence work.

The building has been talked of for at least three years and the erection of it has become more necessary with each succeeding day. Manager Swaney states that business has reached such proportions that the room now occupied on Washington street is absolutely inadequate. Additional switch boards are needed in the exchange, and under the cramped conditions it is not possible to place them.

When the building is erected it will be modern in every respect. It will be 30 feet in width, 70 feet long and three stories high. The entire structure will be used by the company and even then there will not be more room than is needed. A complete battery system will be installed in the building, an improvement that will add greatly to the convenience of patrons, who will be relieved from giving room to batteries at their homes and places of business.

The exchange will be on the third floor and will be perfect in every detail. When the structure is finished the patrons of the company will receive better service, the employees will be better fitted to serve them and the improvements will be generally commended.

IN DANGER OF FALLING

New Postoffice at Lisbon Liable to Collapse, Has Been Propped Up.

Lisbon, March 29.—(Special.)—The new postoffice building here on which the bridge work has been completed seems to be in imminent danger of partial collapse. The front walls have weakened and the iron pillars supporting the front have sank several inches. Heavy timbers have been put in place to serve as props, and thus it is hoped to avert any serious damage until the wall has been strengthened.

Much of the work on the building was done during the cold weather, and this, it is thought, caused the weakened condition of the foundation wall.

WILL BE TAKEN TO JAIL

Mrs. Nancy McDole And Harvey Vance Booked for a Trip to Lisbon.

Mrs. Nancy McDole and Harvey Vance, the two shanty boat people who were arrested Sunday afternoon, are booked for a trip to Lisbon. They will be taken to the county jail tomorrow.

Mrs. McDole came to the city several months ago from Hazel, Meigs county. Her husband is now living in the little Ohio town. She says they have not lived together for years and that she has no love for him whatever. She confesses to loving Vance and says she will marry him just as soon as she can.

The township trustees have been applied to by the woman to take care of her 10-year-old daughter. She wants them to send the girl to her grandmother, Mrs. Hannah Pease, who lives at Hazel. The trustees will take care of the child.

STATE HOME FOR NEEDY VETERANS

Measure Pending to Give $25,000 a Year to Its Support.

OTHER BILLS CONSIDERED

Columbus, March 29.—(Special.)—Dr. A. C. Yengling, of Salem, department commander of the G. A. R. of Ohio, arrived here yesterday afternoon to urge the passage by the house of the bill of Senator Silberberg, of Hamilton, to provide for the establishment and maintenance of a home for indigent ex-soldiers, sailors and marines of Ohio, with the wives and widows of ex-soldiers, marines and army nurses. The measure passed the senate and will come up for third reading in the house this afternoon.

The Women's Relief Corps has been maintaining a home of the kind mentioned at Madison, Lake county, and the purpose of the bill is to take it from their hands and make it a state institution. Two years ago the legislature appropriated $25,000 for the institution. The bill provides for the erection of a board, to be appointed by the governor, to manage the institution and appropriates $25,000 for its maintenance for the coming two years. Dr. Yengling was introduced to the house members by Mr. Hill, who will make a speech before the house favoring the passage of the bill.

Two bills were introduced and passed under suspension of rules in the house yesterday afternoon relative to the appointment of assessors. In cities having township trustees these officials appoint assessors where there are vacancies and in cities without such officers the county auditor appoints. Assessors elected last year hold over.

Auditor J. Frank Adams and Recorder Charles White arrived here yesterday afternoon. Sheriff A. J. Johnson is expected today.

Appealed from Salem Court.

Lisbon, March 29.—(Special.)—

THE SAME OLD COMPLAINT IS REPEATED ONCE MORE

Nuisances and Disease-Breeding Spots Exist Because of No City Dumping Ground.

CONDITIONS DEMAND A VERY PROMPT REMEDY

Attendant to the opening of spring are complaints being made to the health department relative to the sanitary condition of the city. While it is true that the city is no worse from a sanitary standpoint than in the same season of former years, it is bad enough and the trouble, as in the past, is said to be due to the fact that there is no public dumping ground.

Already numberless wagons of filth have been dumped within the confines of the city. The river bank is receiving the most of the rubbish and from these districts are coming the wafts for protection. The stench issuing from the dumps is nauseating to say the least and very dangerous to the health of the people close by. The germs of disease are bred in the dirt piles and they spread like wild fire during the warm weather. No one in particular is charged with the responsibility for the bad state of affairs.

It is maintained that at least one dumping place for the dumping of refuse would be the solution of the problem, but for several years an attempt has been made to provide one and in each instance the promoters have met defeat. Unless, however, something is done in a short time the conditions will be alarming and those upon whose shoulders the health of the city rests will be appealed to. It is argued that a tract of perhaps an acre in the West End would be sufficient and that it should be procured at any cost. If the city cannot come to a reasonable agreement with the owner of a desirable piece of land it has the power of instituting condemnation proceedings and it is said that such action may be advised.

Contrary to the custom followed for years, the street commissioner has failed this month to issue a proclamation to the people, ordering them to clean their back yards. The notice in the past was given on or about March 15. It is said that the custom will not be carried out in the future owing to the fact that yards now do not get in the same condition as they did when the ordinance was passed pertaining to them. At that time there was no gas used in the city, people burning coal. During the winter months they would fill their yards and the alleys with ashes, making it necessary for the city officials to order the dirt removed.

A thorough cleaning of the streets and alleys will be commenced by the street department before long, but where all the refuse will be dumped is not known. The river bank will receive the most of it.

The case of the Ross & Sprague company vs. S. W. Ramsey has been appealed by the plaintiff from the court of Justice J. Frank Kerr, of Salem. The plaintiff company sued for $100 alleged to be due as money paid to the defendant who was once the company's attorney. A jury trial on March 18 resulted in a verdict of $40 for the plaintiff, which is held to be insufficient.

BOY WAS SET FREE BY JUDGE'S ORDER

Justice of the Peace Alleged to Have Desired to Keep Him There.

Beaver, March 29.—William Waterhouse, aged 19, who has been in jail for the past two months, was released yesterday on his own recognizance. No return had been made by Justice of the Peace C. W. Schrupp, of Rochester, who committed him, and when Sheriff Howard Bliss sent to the justice for it, the justice replied that there was no hurry and the boy could stay in jail until the June term of criminal court.

The sheriff brought the boy into court and stated the case to Judge J. Sharp Wilson. The boy said he had been working at Vanport when another boy wrote to him not to return to Rochester or he would be arrested. William at once went to Rochester to see about it, as he had done nothing wrong, he said. He saw the officers watching him and went up to one of them and asked what was the matter. He was at once arrested and told that he had robbed a store. He was kept in the lockup four days and then sent to jail. While in the lockup he was "sweated" by the officers and told he would be set free if he would tell who committed the robbery.

GOV. WHITE SAYS EXTRA SESSION WILL BE CALLED

West Virginia Legislature to Consider Tax Commission Bills.

Charleston, W. Va., March 29.—Gov. White said today that an extra session of the legislature would be called to take up the tax commission bills agreed upon in the recent conferences of the committee having the matter in charge. The time for calling the extra session, Gov. White said, had not been fixed.

The governor said: "As I understand it there has been a general agreement that the proposition to provide for the taxing of oil, coal and gas, as had been under consideration by the tax commission, is to be entirely obliterated from consideration at the proposed extra session."

shoulders the health of the city rests will be appealed to. It is argued that a tract of perhaps an acre in the West End would be sufficient and that it should be procured at any cost. If the city cannot come to a reasonable agreement with the owner of a desirable piece of land it has the power of instituting condemnation proceedings and it is said that such action may be advised.

FIFTEEN CASES ARE FOR TRIAL THIS TERM

Wyman Case Among Those Which Are Continued By Circuit Court.

Lisbon, March 29.—(Special.)—The March term of circuit court opened at 9 a. m. today. Judge P. A. Laubie presiding, with Judges J. B. Burrows and John M. Cook on the bench. Fifteen of the 23 cases on the assignment were set for trial or hearing. Entries were made as follows:

Daniel T. Lawson vs. Wm. R. Wells, passed.

Philip Bruner, as taxpayer, vs. Wallace L. Fogo and remaining officials of Wellsville, dismissed at plaintiff's cost.

W. C. Randall vs. Joseph Laughlin et al, continued.

NOTORIOUS CROOK IS UNDER ARREST

Is Alleged to Have Cleared Up $3,500 By Operations in the Panhandle.

Washington, Pa., March 29.—It is learned today that David Ullom, alias Doad Huggins, who is in jail on the charge of passing bogus checks in exchange for bran and other feed, is one of the most notorious characters in the country, his home being at Sistersville. It also has developed that he is alleged to have swindled farmers and feed dealers throughout the Panhandle section of the Mountain state out of at least $3,500, and the generally accepted theory is that in his bucconing business he has an accomplice who has the greater part of the money. When arrested in this town but $90.60 were found on his person.

After being tried in the local court he will probably be called to answer to several crimes committed across the line, where he has been operating more extensively.

New Pastor Called.

Warren, March 29.—By a unanimous vote of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church of this city, a call was extended to Rev. Franklin P. Reinhold, of Windsor Locks, Canada, to become its pastor at a salary of $2,400 a year. This is an increase of $600 over the amount paid Rev. S. W. McFadden, his predecessor, who recently went to Sioux City, Ia.

Young Man Who Recently Got Out of the Workhouse Behind Bars Again.

Albert P. Gaskill, of Parkersburg nativity, who was arrested in the city two or three months ago for stabbing an attendant at the Taylor hospital and who was released from the workhouse at Canton on last Saturday, where he paid the penalty of the crime, was arrested again last evening. Officer Todd took him in charge at about 1 o'clock this morning and gave him a cell at the city jail.

Gaskill was charged with being drunk and there was also suspicion of his attempting to break into a house on Third street. The latter charge was not preferred against him, however. He pleaded guilty to the former and the mayor imposed the customary fine. He will rest it out in jail.

VILE LANGUAGE IN HIS LETTER

J. Ernest Spence Fined $50 and Costs For What He Wrote.

GRAVER CHARGES LIKELY

After a secret investigation of nearly nine months, U. S. Cunningham a few days ago secured evidence sufficient to uphold him in having a warrant issued for the arrest of J. Ernest Spence. Though the charge against Spence is a grave one, Cunningham announces that he is ready to prefer a much more serious one and it is likely that there will be something doing in the court of Squire McCarron before the case is settled.

Spence was arrested last evening by Special Detective Charles Gill. He was taken before Justice McCarron this morning and pleaded guilty to a charge of displaying writing and lewd pictures which, for downright turpitude, eclipse anything ever brought to light in the court of any local justice. The writing must have been done when the young man was devoid of his full senses. None but one in the lowest state of depravity would write or even think of the language used in the letters produced by Cunningham.

IN DANGER OF FALLING

New Postoffice at Lisbon Liable to Collapse, Has Been Propped Up.

Lisbon, March 29.—(Special.)—The new postoffice building here on which the bridge work has been completed seems to be in imminent danger of partial collapse. The front walls have weakened and the iron pillars supporting the front have sunk several inches. Heavy timbers have been put in place to serve as props, and thus it is hoped to avert any serious damage until the wall has been strengthened.

Staubenville Man Died the Alleged Victim of a Wound His Wife Gave Him.

Staubenville, March 29.—Jasper Wind died yesterday from a wound said to have been inflicted by his wife, on December 18, when she plunged a penknife into his leg. The blade scraped an artery and Wind had an operation performed at West Penn hospital. He returned home presumably well, but he soon became worse and died yesterday.

Mrs. May Wind has disappeared. Her husband before his death would not talk about the occurrence and tried to shield his wife.

NEW TELEPHONE LINE

Contract Let For Its Construction in Fairfield Township, This County.

Columbiana, March 29.—(Special.)—The Fairfield Township Mutual Telephone company, recently organized in Fairfield township to install a telephone system in the rural district south of here, has let the contract for the construction of the line to E. J. Longanecker & Bro.

The Columbiana Lumber company will furnish the poles, and work will be commenced as soon as material can be secured.

John Allison Free But Crippled.

John Allison, notorious because of his mania for other people's horses and chickens, was released from the Canton workhouse on last Thursday and is now in the city. He is in a deplorable condition, being paralyzed in the face and the left side of his body.

NEW EXCHANGE WILL BE BUILT

Bids Are Being Received on Telephone Company Building.

PROJECTED A LONG TIME

Present Quarters Are Inadequate and the New Structure Is Greatly Needed By the Bell Company—To Be Finished This Season.

The proposed new building of the Bell Telephone company to be erected at the corner of Drury lane and Market street will likely be under construction before the coming of summer. Bids are to be received for the complete contract one day of this week and it is said the company will require the building to be finished in as short a time as possible. Architects in Pittsburg completed the plans and specifications a few days ago and all is ready for the lowest bidder to commence work.

The building has been talked of for at least three years and the erection of it has become more necessary with each succeeding day. Manager Swaney states that business has reached such proportions that the room now occupied on Washington street is absolutely inadequate. Additional switch boards are needed in the exchange, and under the cramped conditions it is not possible to place them.

When the building is erected it will be modern in every respect. It will be 30 feet in width, 70 feet long and three stories high. The entire structure will be used by the company and even then there will not be more room than is needed. A complete battery system will be installed in the building, an improvement that will add greatly to the convenience of patrons, who will be relieved from giving room to batteries at their homes and places of business.

The exchange will be on the third floor and will be perfect in every detail. When the structure is finished the patrons of the company will receive better service, the employees will be better fitted to serve them and the improvements will be generally commended.

WILL BE TAKEN TO JAIL

Mrs. Nancy McDole And Harvey Vance Booked for a Trip to Lisbon.

Mrs. Nancy McDole and Harvey Vance, the two shanty boat people who were arrested Sunday afternoon, are booked for a trip to Lisbon. They will be taken to the county jail tomorrow.

Mrs. McDole came to the city several months ago from Hazel, Meigs county. Her husband is now living in the little Ohio town. She says they have not lived together for years and that she has no love for him whatever. She confesses to loving Vance and says she will marry him just as soon as she can.

The township trustees have been applied to by the woman to take care of her 10-year-old daughter. She wants them to send the girl to her grandmother, Mrs. Hannah Pease, who lives at Hazel. The trustees will take care of the child.

STATE HOME FOR NEEDY VETERANS

Measure Pending to Give $25,000 a Year to Its Support.

OTHER BILLS CONSIDERED

Columbus, March 29.—(Special.)—Dr. A. C. Yengling, of Salem, department commander of the G. A. R. of Ohio, arrived here yesterday afternoon to urge the passage by the house of the bill of Senator Silberberg, of Hamilton, to provide for the establishment and maintenance of a home for indigent ex-soldiers, sailors and marines of Ohio, with the wives and widows of ex-soldiers, marines and army nurses. The measure passed the senate and will come up for third reading in the house this afternoon.

The Women's Relief Corps has been maintaining a home of the kind mentioned at Madison, Lake county, and the purpose of the bill is to take it from their hands and make it a state institution. Two years ago the legislature appropriated $25,000 for the institution. The bill provides for the erection of a board, to be appointed by the governor, to manage the institution and appropriates $25,000 for its maintenance for the coming two years. Dr. Yengling was introduced to the house members by Mr. Hill, who will make a speech before the house favoring the passage of the bill.

Two bills were introduced and passed under suspension of rules in the house yesterday afternoon relative to the appointment of assessors. In cities having township trustees these officials appoint assessors where there are vacancies and in cities without such officers the county auditor appoints. Assessors elected last year hold over.

Auditor J. Frank Adams and Recorder Charles White arrived here yesterday afternoon. Sheriff A. J. Johnson is expected today.

Appealed from Salem Court.

Lisbon, March 29.—(Special.)—

FRENCH FLAG FLOATING OVER RUSSIAN BUILDINGS

Peculiar Outcome of War at Newchwang—Japs and Cossacks Fight, Scores Being Slain.

Tien Tsin, March 29.—(Special.)—A Frenchman named Kreautler has been appointed French consular agent at Newchwang and has hoisted the French flag over the Russo-Chinese bank. It is believed the French flag will soon fly over all Russian buildings in Newchwang.

Seoul, March 29.—(Special.)—Fifty Japanese and 100 Cossacks are reported to have been killed in a skirmish which took place between Anju and Tsinju.

St. Petersburg, March 29.—(Special.)—The Russian press entertains no apprehension as to the outcome of the war. The Novoski says "For the Japanese the war is a life and death struggle; for Russia only a colonial conflict. Even defeat would not greatly affect the Russian empire, while success would mean a great stimulus to the Russian colonization of Manchuria."

All the correspondents have been expelled from Port Arthur, because one mentioned in his dispatches important information regarding the movements of Russian troops.

Irakutsk, March 29.—(Special.)—Traffic across Lake Barkal is carried on unceasingly. The troops cross on the ice, singing as they march.

THE SAME OLD COMPLAINT IS REPEATED ONCE MORE

Nuisances and Disease-Breeding Spots Exist Because of No City Dumping Ground.

Attendant to the opening of spring are complaints being made to the health department relative to the sanitary condition of the city. While it is true that the city is no worse from a sanitary standpoint than in the same season of former years, it is bad enough and the trouble, as in the past, is said to be due to the fact that there is no public dumping ground.

CONDITIONS DEMAND A VERY PROMPT REMEDY

Contrary to the custom followed for years, the street commissioner has failed this month to issue a proclamation to the people, ordering them to clean their back yards. The notice in the past was given on or about March 15. It is said that the custom will not be carried out in the future owing to the fact that yards now do not get in the same condition as they did when the ordinance was passed pertaining to them. At that time there was no gas used in the city, people burning coal. During the winter months they would fill their yards and the alleys with ashes, making it necessary for the city officials to order the dirt removed.

A thorough cleaning of the streets and alleys will be commenced by the street department before long, but where all the refuse will be dumped is not known. The river bank will receive the most of it.

The case of the Ross & Sprague company vs. S. W. Ramsey has been appealed by the plaintiff from the court of Justice J. Frank Kerr, of Salem. The plaintiff company sued for $100 alleged to be due as money paid to the defendant who was once the company's attorney. A jury trial on March 18 resulted in a verdict of $40 for the plaintiff, which is held to be insufficient.

BOY WAS SET FREE BY JUDGE'S ORDER

Justice of the Peace Alleged to Have Desired to Keep Him There.

Beaver, March 29.—William Waterhouse, aged 19, who has been in jail for the past two months, was released yesterday on his own recognizance. No return had been made by Justice of the Peace C. W. Schrupp, of Rochester, who committed him, and when Sheriff Howard Bliss sent to the justice for it, the justice replied that there was no hurry and the boy could stay in jail until the June term of criminal court.

The sheriff brought the boy into court and stated the case to Judge J. Sharp Wilson. The boy said he had been working at Vanport when another boy wrote to him not to return to Rochester or he would be arrested. William at once went to Rochester to see about it, as he had done nothing wrong, he said. He saw the officers watching him and went up to one of them and asked what was the matter. He was at once arrested and told that he had robbed a store. He was kept in the lockup four days and then sent to jail. While in the lockup he was "sweated" by the officers and told he would be set free if he would tell who committed the robbery.

GOV. WHITE SAYS EXTRA SESSION WILL BE CALLED

West Virginia Legislature to Consider Tax Commission Bills.

Charleston, W. Va., March 29.—Gov. White said today that an extra session of the legislature would be called to take up the tax commission bills agreed upon in the recent conferences of the committee having the matter in charge. The time for calling the extra session, Gov. White said, had not been fixed.

The governor said: "As I understand it there has been a general agreement that the proposition to provide for the taxing of oil, coal and gas, as has been under consideration by the tax commission, is to be entirely obliterated from consideration at the proposed extra session."

NOTORIOUS CROOK IS UNDER ARREST

Is Alleged to Have Cleared Up $3,500 By Operations in the Panhandle.

Washington, Pa., March 29.—It is learned today that David Ullom, alias Doad Huggins, who is in jail on the charge of passing bogus checks in exchange for bran and other feed, is one of the most notorious characters in the country, his home being at Sistersville. It also has developed that is is alleged to have swindled farmers and feed dealers throughout the Panhandle section of the Mountain state out of at least $3,500, and the generally accepted theory is that in his unbecoming business he has an accomplice who has the greater part of the money. When arrested in this town but $90.60 were found on his person.

After being tried in the local court he will probably be called to answer to several crimes committed across the line, where he has been operating more extensively.

New Pastor Called.

Warren, March 29.—By a unanimous vote of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church of this city, a call was extended to Rev. Franklin P. Reinhold, of Windsor Locks, Canada, to become its pastor at a salary of $2,400 a year. This is an increase of $600 over the amount paid Rev. S. W. McFadden, his predecessor, who recently went to Sioux City, Ia.

Among the Potteries and Allied Industries

POTTERS IN OFFICE.

The present city administration of Trenton has a good representation of potters in its make up. President William Thomas, of common council, heads the list. Mr. Thomas is serving his second year as president of council, and so well did he administer the delicate duties of the exacting position during his first year that his reelection to the position a few weeks ago was practically unanimous. He is one of the most popular men to be found in the city hall. He is foreman at the Trent Tile works.

George Tunncliffe, who is President Thomas' councilmanic confrere from the Twelfth ward, is one of the leading potters' engravers in the city and maintains a private engraving plant. This is his second year in council and he holds several important places on committees.

John O. Grettton, a sanitary worker at the Trenton Fire Clay & Porcelain plant, was elected to common council last November, and is making a good record as a city lawmaker. He holds an important position on the fire committee, which at present is charged with the work of overseeing a $100,000 extension of the fire mains, the building of two new engine houses and the purchase of $20,000 worth of new fire apparatus. He also serves on the lamp, city hall and sanitary committee.

John Brian, a retired potter, completes the circle of potters who have a hand in making Trenton laws. He is a member of a family noted in Trenton for years as leaders in the manufacture of pottery. He is a son of Richard Brian, who formerly conducted the original Enterprise pottery. Several relatives now operate the Brian pottery. He is chairman of the poor committee and serves on the park committee.

CHARLES W. DONAGHUE.

Charles W. Donaghue, one of Trenton's best known manufacturers of potters' supplies, died Saturday evening after a protracted illness, at his home, 523 Mulberry street, East Trenton. The funeral took place from St. Joseph's Catholic church this morning. Requiem high mass was said by Rev. Father Ward. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery. Mr. Donaghue is survived by a widow and two daughters, Miss Susie E. Donaghue and Miss Jennie C. Donaghue, who superintends her father's business. He represented the Eighth ward in the city council in 1888 and 1889 and made a record as a fearless and aggressive legislator. Before the Eighth ward was annexed to the city he was tax collector and overseer of the poor of Lawrence township.

He was a member of Trenton Council No. 335, Knights of Columbus, and the Rev. Anthony Smith Council, C. B. L. He took an active interest in Catholic benevolent work throughout the city, and was widely known by the potters.

night at the regular meeting when three candidates were initiated and one admitted by card. Two applications were acted upon. The kilndrawers are keeping abreast of the times and the questions of importance in the Brotherhood are receiving their attention. It is likely that their delegates will go to the convention unimpaired, as there is now a strong sentiment favorable to this plan. As there are no wage matters to be considered the most important business will be the changes in the laws and other matters of this character, and the kilndrawers think their delegates can accomplish much more if they are left free to act as they think best. It is likely that other locals will decide against instructing their delegates.

SECRET IS OUT.

The friends of Barney Halles, a well known young potter employed as a stickerup in one of the Wellsville potteries, and Miss Beulah Koontz, a prominent young lady of Walker, will be surprised to learn that they were married on last Wednesday at Steubenville. The ceremony was performed at the home of a friend and the happy young couple returned to this city without announcing the happy event. The news reached here yesterday, however, and Mr. and Mrs. Halles are receiving the congratulations of many friends. At present they are living at Walker.

AN APOLOGY.

Dennis Ryan, a kilndrawer at the Dresden, became involved in an argument at that plant Saturday. On account of some misunderstanding Mr. Ryan made an accusation concerning his employer that he is sorry for. Ryan called at the News Review last evening and asked that his statement be made public. He said: "I have not a better friend in the city than Councilman Tom Cannon. He has befriended me on more than one occasion and I am sincerely sorry that I said anything that would reflect on him for a moment."

GOES TO COSHOCTON.

James Ford, who has been pressing at Goodwin's for some time, has resigned his position and will go to Coshocton, where he will take a position as printer in the Pope-Gosser plant. Mr. Ford followed this trade before working as a presser. His wife and Miss Emma Bowers will accompany him, the latter as his transferer.

EXPECTED HOME.

Ernest McGraw, of the drawing crew at the Standard, who has been spending several weeks with friends and relatives at his old home in Racine, is expected home this week. Other members of the crew state that he will not return alone.

AT WORK AGAIN.

Raymond Jennings, one of the boys painfully cut at the Goodwin plant a few days ago while playing with a ewer, has recovered and returned to work. Willis Webber, his companion, more severely hurt, is still laid up.

POTTERY NOTES.

Miss Elsie Rollie, finisher at Goodwin's, has returned from a week's visit with friends at Steubenville.

Frank Robinson, boss warehouseman at Goodwin's, is preparing to build an addition to his home on Sixth street. A daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs. George Rutledge, of Sarah street, and Mr. Rutledge has been setting them up to his fellow workmen at the Thompson plant.

BURTON IS CONVICTED

United States Senator From Kansas Under Ban of the Statutes.

CONSEQUENCES ARE SERIOUS

Jury After Long Deliberation Convicts Him of Receiving Money to Represent Rialto Grain and Security Company.

St. Louis, March 29.—Joseph Ralph, senior United States senator from Kansas, has been convicted by a jury in the United States district court of having accepted compensation to protect the interests of the Rialto Grain and Securities company of St. Louis before the postoffice department. The jury deliberated 41 hours.

A motion for a new trial was immediately filed by the counsel for the senator. Judge Adams thereupon ordered that Senator Burton appear in court either in person or by proxy from day to day until the court has heard the arguments for a new trial.

For a time there threatened to be a disagreement of the jury. The jury was brought before Judge Adams, who asked the cause for the long delay. He was told that 11 jurors had agreed but that the twelfth stood alone. The court admonished the lone juror that the expense of a new trial should not be incurred because of him failing to agree with the majority of the jurors. A precedent was quoted showing that the majority of the jurors should decide the case before them and a verdict be rendered accordingly. The jury was then told to go back and poll its vote once more. Soon after the jury reported, bringing in a verdict but Judge Adams found that the third count of the indictment had not been considered, and again he sent the jury back to consider the case.

The third time the jury entered the court room the result of its deliberations was announced, and United States Senator Burton stood convicted on the charges brought against him in the indictment.

At the time that word was received by the court that the jury had agreed and was ready with the verdict, Senator Burton had gone to his hotel. A marshal was sent to notify him to appear in court. Few people were in the court room when he entered. He took his seat by the side of his attorney and looked the jurors in the face as they entered.

There was no perceptible change in Senator Burton's countenance when the verdict was read. Judge Krum asked to have the jury polled. Each answered that the verdict was his own. Judge Krum forthwith presented a motion for a new trial. The court replied that the bond of $5,000 was sufficient. The court did not pass sentence.

Court having adjourned, Senator Burton calmly lighted a cigar and turning to his secretary and his attorneys began a conversation in a low tone. He appeared completely composed.

If the verdict is sustained Senator Burton will lose his seat in the senate and forever be prohibited from holding any office of public trust. Each count constitutes a separate offense and Senator Burton could receive a penitentiary sentence of two years or a fine of $10,000 on each of the counts upon which he has been first under this section of the statute which was enacted by congress in 1864.

Senator Burton went directly from the courtroom to his hotel after the verdict was rendered. He spent some time in the lobby talking with friends. When asked if he had anything to say concerning the verdict, he said: "I refer all inquiries to my attorneys. I have nothing to say."

The evidence adduced against Senator Burton may be summarized as follows: In November, 1902, he accepted a proposal to become general counsel for the Rialto Grain and Securities Company, a concern whose operations at the time were under the scrutiny of the postoffice department. Burton demanded $2,500 for his services, but he was satisfied to be paid in monthly installments of $500 each.

Soon after his employment it developed that the Federal grand jury was investigating the Brooks Brokerage. Even if this news is not confirmed the fact that the cruiser has not been mentioned as partaking in the recent operations is sufficient evidence. It is not known since the death of Capt. Stephanoff, commander of the Yenesel, where the torpedoes have been placed and hence it is impossible for Russian ships to approach Dalny, where there are known to be many.

POTTERS IN OFFICE.

The present city administration of Trenton has a good representation of potters in its make up. President William Thomas, of common council, heads the list. Mr. Thomas is serving his second year as president of council, and so well did he administer the delicate duties of the exacting position during his first year that his reelection to the position a few weeks ago was practically unanimous. He is one of the most popular men to be found in the city hall. He is foreman at the Trent Tile works.

George Tunncliffe, who is President Thomas' councilmanic confere from the Twelfth ward, is one of the leading potters' engravers in the city and maintains a private engraving plant. This is his second year in council and he holds several important places on committees.

John O. Gretton, a sanitary worker at the Trenton Fire Clay & Porcelain plant, was elected to common council last November, and is making a good record as a city lawmaker. He holds an important position on the fire committee, which at present is charged with the work of overseeing a $100,000 extension of the fire mains, the building of two new engine houses and the purchase of $20,000 worth of new fire apparatus. He also serves on the lamp, city hall and sanitary committee.

John Brian, a retired potter, completes the circle of potters who have a hand in making Trenton laws. He is a member of a family noted in Trenton for years as leaders in the manufacture of pottery. He is a son of Richard Brian, who formerly conducted the original Enterprise pottery. Several relatives now operate the Brian pottery. He is chairman of the poor committee and serves on the park committee.

CHARLES W. DONAGHUE.

Charles W. Donaghue, one of Trenton's best known manufacturers of potters' supplies, died Saturday evening after a protracted illness, at his home, 523 Mulberry street, East Trenton. The funeral took place from St. Joseph's Catholic church this morning. Requiem high mass was said by Rev. Father Ward. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery. Mr. Donaghue is survived by a widow and two daughters, Miss Susie E. Donaghue and Miss Jennie C. Donaghue, who superintends her father's business. He represented the Eighth ward in the city council in 1888 and 1889 and made a record as a fearless and aggressive legislator. Before the Eighth ward was annexed to the city he was tax collector and overseer of the poor of Lawrence township.

He was a member of Trenton Council No. 335, Knights of Columbus, and the Rev. Anthony Smith Council, C. B. L. He took an active interest in Catholic benevolent work throughout the city, and was widely known by the potters.

The kiln drawers are keeping abreast of the times and the questions of importance in the Brotherhood are receiving their attention. It is likely that their delegates will go to the convention unimpaired, as there is now a strong sentiment favorable to this plan. As there are no wage matters to be considered the most important business will be the changes in the laws and other matters of this character, and the kiln drawers think their delegates can accomplish much more if they are left free to act as they think best. It is likely that other locals will decide against instructing their delegates.

SECRET IS OUT.

The friends of Barney Hailes, a well known young potter employed as a stickerup in one of the Wellsville potteries, and Miss Beulah Koontz, a prominent young lady of Walker, will be surprised to learn that they were married on last Wednesday at Steubenville. The ceremony was performed at the home of a friend and the happy young couple returned to this city without announcing the happy event. The news reached here yesterday, however, and Mr. and Mrs. Hailes are receiving the congratulations of many friends. At present they are living at Walker.

AN APOLOGY.

Dennis Ryan, a kilndrawer at the Dresden, became involved in an argument at that plant Saturday. He has befriended me on more than one occasion and I am sincerely sorry that I said anything that would reflect on him for a moment."

BURTON IS CONVICTED

United States Senator From Kansas Under Ban of the Statutes.

CONSEQUENCES ARE SERIOUS

Jury After Long Deliberation Convicts Him of Receiving Money to Represent Rialto Grain and Security Company.

St. Louis, March 29.—Joseph Ralph, senior United States senator from Kansas, has been convicted by a jury in the United States district court of having accepted compensation to protect the interests of the Rialto Grain and Securities company of St. Louis before the postoffice department. The jury deliberated 41 hours.

A motion for a new trial was immediately filed by the counsel for the senator. Judge Adams thereupon ordered that Senator Burton appear in court either in person or by proxy from day to day until the court has heard the arguments for a new trial.

For a time there threatened to be a disagreement of the jury. The jury was brought before Judge Adams, who asked the cause for the long delay. He was told that 11 jurors had agreed but that the twelfth stood alone. The court admonished the lone juror that the expense of a new trial should not be incurred because of him failing to agree with the majority of the jurors. A precedent was quoted showing that the majority of the jurors should decide the case before them and a verdict be rendered accordingly. The jury was then told to go back and poll its vote once more.

Soon after the jury reported, bringing in a verdict but Judge Adams found that the third count of the indictment had not been considered, and again he sent the jury back to consider the case.

The third time the jury entered the court room the result of its deliberations was sufficient. The court did not pass sentence.

Court having adjourned, Senator Burton calmly lighted a cigar and turning to his secretary and his attorneys began a conversation in a low tone. He appeared completely composed.

If the verdict is sustained Senator Burton will lose his seat in the senate and forever be prohibited from holding any office of public trust. Each count constitutes a separate offense and Senator Burton could receive a penitentiary sentence of two years or a fine of $10,000 on each of the counts upon which he has been first under this section of the statute which was enacted by congress in 1864.

Senator Burton went directly from the courtroom to his hotel after the verdict was rendered. He spent some time in the lobby talking with friends. When asked if he had anything to say concerning the verdict, he said: "I refer all inquiries to my attorneys. I have nothing to say."

The evidence adduced against Senator Burton may be summarized as follows: In November, 1902, he accepted a proposal to become general counsel for the Rialto Grain and Securities Company, a concern whose operations at the time were under the scrutiny of the postoffice department. Burton demanded $2,500 for his services, but he was satisfied to be paid in monthly installments of $500 each.

Soon after his employment it developed that the Federal grand jury was investigating the Brooks Brokerage. Even if this news is not confirmed the fact that the cruiser has not been mentioned as partaking in the recent operations is sufficient evidence. It is not known since the death of Capt. Stephanoff, commander of the Yenesel, where the torpedoes have been placed and hence it is impossible for Russia's ships to approach Dalny, where there are known to be many.

tions was announced, and United States Senator Burton stood convicted on the charges brought against him in the indictment.

At the time that word was received by the court that the jury had agreed and was ready with the verdict, Senator Burton had gone to his hotel. A marshal was sent to notify him to appear in court. Few people were in the court room when he entered. He took his seat by the side of his attorney and looked the jurors in the face as they entered.

There was no perceptible change in Senator Burton's countenance when the verdict was read. Judge Krum asked to have the jury polled. Each answered that the verdict was his own. Judge Krum forthwith presented a motion for a new trial. The court replied that the bond of $5,000

NERVOUS AND DESPONDENT

Mrs. Broquette Sought In Vain For Relief By Travel In Foreign Countries

Every nervous, debilitated woman should read this letter of Mrs. R. T. Broquette, a New York lady prominent in American and foreign social circles:

"I have received so much benefit from the use of your Mucu-Tone that I feel I ought not to hesitate in an acknowledgment of my debt to you. In 1900 I went abroad for my health, spending three years in France, Switzerland, Italy, Holland and England. I was quite weak, and the slightest effort brought on a fit of trembling, so that I had to travel very leisurely. I took the opportunity to consult several good physicians in Paris and London, but the benefit I received from their treatment was but slight and temporary. Returning to New York last fall, I found myself still an invalid. My appetite failed, I could not sleep, I had severe headaches and the result of my little shopping trip was always complete prostration. The doctors thought me suffering from nervous debility and malnutrition.

"A short time ago a friend recommended your Reall Mucu-Tone to me very highly. I had never thought of using a 'patent medicine,' having a natural prejudice against them. But I was so weak and sick and my friend's belief in the medicine so strong that I bought my first bottle of Mucu-Tone then and there.

"Since then I have bought four other bottles and am practically a well woman. I eat heartily, sleep soundly, and am no longer nervous and pale, but a hearty, active woman. If my case was as the doctors said, one of nervous debility and malnutrition, then I am sure you have in Mucu-Tone a wonderful remedy for this condition.

"Everyone notices the change in me and compliments me on my good health. Grateful for your helpful and healing medicine, I remain, etc.,

Mrs. R. T. Broquette
215 West 116th St., New York City."

How is it that Reall Mucu-Tone, a catarrh cure, accomplishes this?

Simply because it is a catarrhal condition of the mucous membranes of the body that is responsible for nine out of ten cases of "nerves," ill health, weakness, despondency and general debility.

Mucu-Tone corrects these conditions. It works through the blood, driving out the poisons, healing the sore membranes and revitalizing the blood. In addition to this it is the most powerful nutritive tonic known to science.

If you are tired, worn out and run down, if your sleep does not rest you, and if you feel on the verge of nervous prostration, give Reall Mucu-Tone a trial. If it doesn't make a new person of you come back and we will refund your money.

DECKER WANTS DAMAGES FOR INJURIES RECEIVED

Was Hurt at the Sewer Pipe Plant and Alleges That the Company Was Negligent.

A. J. Decker, a former employee of the East End plant of the American Clay Manufacturing company, commonly known as the sewer pipe trust, has filed suit against that concern for $10,000 damages in the common pleas court at Lisbon. Decker alleges that he was permanently injured in an elevator accident at the plant last December. He has been confined to his home in Calhoun's addition most of the time since the accident, which occurred in December last year, and although now able to get around, is compelled to use crutches and is unfit for work at his usual occupation.

The plaintiff alleges in his petition that on the day of the accident he was in the elevator and on account of its faulty construction and the carelessness of the company, his foot was caught and badly crushed and mashed, injuring him permanently.

Attorneys J. E. Davis, of the East End, and W. F. Lones, of Wellsville, are the plaintiff's attorneys.

A Difficult Job.

Ormes Bros., who have the contract for cleaning out the old oil wells on Dr. R. J. Marshall's Dry Run property, are finding the task no easy one. The old casing, which has been in the well for a quarter of a century and which must be removed, is making the undertaking one of great difficulty. It will be a week or more before the well can be cleaned and not until that time can its value be learned.

Excavating Commenced.

Excavating for the addition to the East End school building has been commenced by the sub-contractor and will be completed as soon as possible. The new rooms will be ready for use when the fall term of school commences.

Congregational Meeting.

The congregation of the Second Presbyterian church will hold the annual meeting at the church tomorrow night, immediately after the close of the prayer service. Business of importance is to be transacted and all communicants are requested to attend.

Mrs. Weisend Sick.

Mrs. J. J. Weisend left on the noon train today for Pittsburgh, where she will enter Mercy hospital for the purpose of having an operation performed. Dr. F. F. Davis accompanied her.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Justice L. W. Carman, who has been seriously sick for several days, is much better today.

Robert Sodaker, whose arm and several ribs were fractured a few days ago in a fall, is able to be out.

J. Howard Pascall, president of the Tri-Bullion Mining and Smelting company, was here today on business.

Paul Andrews, a student at the Indiana Pa. normal school, is spending the spring vacation here with his parents.

The frame work of Charles Haines' new house in the Midway addition has been erected and the structure will soon be ready for occupancy.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be ward off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children, for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. ### MUST PAY $75,000.

Young Man's Prospective Inheritance Is Levied Upon.

New York, March 29.—A sheriff's jury took testimony upon which to determine how much of $75,000 demanded by Eleanor L. Anderson from James N. Abel, he can afford to and ought to pay her for engaging to marry her under the name of J. Ogden Goelet.

Miss Anderson sued him for $75,000 for breach of promise of marriage. The young man failed to answer the complaint and a default was taken upon which Justice Van Brunt, of the appellate division of the supreme court granted an order to Sheriff Erlanger to empanel a jury and assess damages.

Testimony was given to show that Abel had a contingent interest in a large estate left by his grandfather and a prospective interest in the estate of his father, who is wealthy. The jury assessed the defendant for the full amount claimed.

SWAYNE IS DEFENDED

Minority of House Committee File Report Denying Charges.

IS NOT GUILTY OF TYRANNY

Detailed Reply Is Made to All the Various Allegations in Report of Majority Judiciary Committee Written by Mr. Palmer.

Washington, March 29.—Representative Gillette of California has submitted the minority report against the resolution to impeach Judge Swayne of the Northern district of Florida for high misdemeanors. Every ground urged by the committee for impeachment is attacked in this report.

First—On the question of non-residence, it appears from the minority report that Judge Swayne moved to Florida in the year 1885 and in 1889 was appointed district judge of the northern district of Florida and made his home at St. Augustine. The report then shows that the boundary of the district was changed and that Swayne removed to Pensacola. The efforts he made to procure a residence in which to live in that place are set forth and it is shown that he lived there in a hotel. Judge Swayne, the report says, was absent a great deal from his district, but this was due to the fact that he was ordered by Judges Pardee and McCormick to Alabama, Louisiana and Texas, where he held court each year from two to eight months. It took him about two months each year to try cases commenced before his court. The evidence shows that Judge Swayne during all the time complained of was trying cases in Florida, Louisiana and Texas on an average of about nine months each year and that in July and August he took his vacation. Supreme court of the United States and that court last June dismissed it. He then sued out a writ of habeas corpus before Circuit Judge Pardee, and last November Judge Pardee, Judges McCormick and Shelby concurring, dismissed the writ and remanded O'Neil to the custody of the marshal. It was O'Neil that employed lawyers to lobby the resolution through the legislature of Florida, and he also employed the attorneys who represented the prosecution at the investigation.

Third—As to finding Beiden and Davis guilty of contempt. These lawyers were attorneys for the plaintiff in a case involving a tract of land in which claim was made that Judge Swayne was interested. The judge's wife had negotiated for the property, but when he found it was in litigation the negotiations were dropped. While suit was pending Judge Swayne the chairman of their attorneys brought suit in the state court against Swayne to eject him from the property, though it is asserted Swayne never had possession of the property.

The suit was pressed until afterwards the parties were tried and found guilty of contempt. They sued out a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Pardee, and he, sitting with two other circuit judges, dissolved the writ.

Fourth—Hoskins' bankruptcy case. The creditors of one Hoskins petitioned to Second-Finding O'Neil guilty of contempt. The evidence shows that one Greenhut was a creditor of a trustee of the Moreno estate, that as such trustee and as an officer of Judge Swayne's court in the discharge of his public duties he commenced an action in the courts of Florida against the American National bank and other defendants to declare a certain deed of property and mortgages thereon null and void, and to recover property for the benefit of creditors of said bank. Judge Swayne, the report says, to proceed Greenhut for commencing the action, as he admits himself, and did so far as to make an assault upon Greenhut with a knife, and cut him through his ear, across his face to his mouth, and stabbed him three times. This assault was brought to Judge Swayne's notice by an affidavit filed by Greenhut, and he then issued a writ of habeas corpus to be not published for contempt for assaulting an officer of the court and interfering with him in the lawful discharge of his duties as such officer. O'Neil answered, that he had no knowledge of the matter, found O'Neil guilty of contempt as charged, and sentenced him to 60 days imprisonment. O'Neil then took a writ of error to the force him into bankruptcy. The matter came up for trial on March 31 and at that time the attorneys for the creditors asked the court to continue the case for two weeks until they could procure certain account books which it was alleged belonged to Greenhut, but the court refused to grant the continuance and the case went to trial without them. The attorneys for Hoskins, bankruptcy, stated that the books had belonged to Greenhut, but that they contained material evidence for the creditors and that they could not safely proceed to trial without them. who will argue strenuously that the delegate system is an improvement upon the old primary election in nominating candidates for county offices,
or that it constitutes a cure for the evils and abuses which had of late years militated against the efficiency
and fairness of the county primary.
As a heroic measure to emphasize the need of reform in the primary system,
the experiment with the delegate convention may serve a purpose. One thing seems to be certain: We can never secure a system which shall approximately carry out the will of the voters, honestly and fairly, until the primary election shall be conducted under all the safe-guards of the regular election, regulated by state laws."

The thing to do now is to impress
the legislators of this county with the necessity of carrying out the wise suggestions made by Gov. Herrick in his message and providing a just and reasonable primary election law for the whole state. Our legislators are certainly in a position to be aware that there is urgent need as well as a strong popular demand for such legislation. If they will bestir themselves and take the lead in enacting it, we know of no better way in which they can serve the best interests of their constituents or confer greater benefit upon the people of the state. The voters of Columbiana county should make haste to acquaint the local members of the assembly with their sentiments. Write to the senators and representatives and urge upon them the importance of action.

Spring is here and the annual cleaning up of alleys and back yards should proceed energetically. As usual, the lack of a public dumping ground is a serious embarrassment, not only to the city itself, but to every citizen who undertakes a little cleaning on his own hook. A dump would cost little and in the interests of cleanliness and health the city ought to have it. It is short-sighted economy to overlook
a matter so small in itself yet of so great importance to the city. Let the city provide for the proper disposal of rubbish and filth of every sort and then see that every citizen obeys the orders and ordinances requiring a genuine cleaning up.

Through much tribulation and against many difficulties the East Liverpool hospital has progressed thus far.
The ladies of the hospital association have worked nobly, despite discouragements that would have caused less determined spirits to give up long ago. We now have a hospital building, but not a hospital. If we are to have that useful and necessary institution, equipped and in working order, it will be necessary for a good many citizens to go down in their pockets and produce cash to run it.
Systematic effort in that direction will doubtless be made, and the responses
should be liberal.

cratic presidential booms as fast as they are sprung. Perhaps he fancies presidential lightning will strike him

ferson and Jackson! If twentieth century Democracy can put forward no better proposition than this, it ought to get out of politics and stay out.

will go forth to battle with tariff reduction inscribed on their banners.
Champ should change his name to Chump.

The police can do no better work than to clean the shanties of the disorderly and criminal element that finds refuge therein.

The problem of supporting the hospital now confronts the city. Oh, for a Carnegie to solve it!

OBITUARY

Bernard Mulrine.
Bernard Mulrine, aged 57, of 294
West Market street, died yesterday afternoon from pneumonia, after an illness of about two weeks. The funeral services will be held at St. Aloysius' Catholic church at 9 o'clock in the morning. Rev. Father Mahon officiating. Mr. Mulrine was born in county Tyrone, Ireland, but when four years of age his parents moved to Boness, Scotland. Mr. Mulrine there learned the trade of a potter and 35 years ago came to this country. He spent a few years at Trenton and then located in East Liverpool, following his trade of kilnman until about five years ago.
He then engaged in the saloon business. He was a member of the Catholic church and had a legion of friends.
He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Margaret, the wife of John McKee, a mail carrier, and Miss Lizzie Mulrine, also of this city.

Three sisters also survive. They are Mrs. Rose Mallon, Baltimore; Mrs.
John Buck, McKeesport, and Mrs.
Mary Linder, this city.

Stanley as a Fighter.
A thoroughly good man was Henry
M. Stanley, whom I first met in the Ashanti expedition. No noise, no danger ruffled his nerve, and he looked as cool and self possessed as if he had been at "target practice." Time after time as I turned in his direction I saw him go down to a kneeling position to steady his rifle as he plied the most daring of the enemy with a never failing aim. It is nearly thirty years ago,
and I can still see before me the close shut lips and determined expression of his manly face, which, when he looked in my direction, told plainly I had near-
me an Englishman in plain clothes whom no danger could appall. Had I felt inclined to run away the cool, firm,
unflinching manliness of that face
would have given me fresh courage. I had been previously somewhat prejudiced by others against him, but all such feelings were slain and buried at

SOUTH SIDE

COUNTY REPUBLICANS MEET NEXT SATURDAY

Date for Primaries is to Be Fixed And
Other Important Matters
Attended To.

A meeting of the county Republican central committee will be held at New Cumberland next Saturday. When the committees held their last session at the county seat it accomplished considerable, but the important matter of fixing the time for holding the county primary election was not taken up for the reason that the representation was not sufficiently large to obtain a fair
expression on the subject.

A number of other matters will be decided upon at the meeting next Saturday and as usual Chester will be prominently identified with every move made. The up-county politicians will favor an early date for the primary election this spring. They will go to the county meeting and insist that the election be held not later than
the last week in May.

The Chester men who will ask favors
of the Hancock county Republicans claim that there is no necessity for putting off the primary longer than the date named. They state that their canvass will be in shape by that time to allow the people to express themselves. They will make a stand against permitting members of all parties to vote at the primaries. It is held that election is a purely Republican nomination, and that other party
men have no right to interfere.

DEATH AT THE HANDS OF PERSONS UNKNOWN

Coroner's Jury Unable to Solve the Mystery of the Dead Infant
Found By the River.

The inquest over the remains of the infant which was supposed to have been murdered and left on the river bank near the West Virginia end of the bridge a few days ago, was continued last night in the office of Justice W. C. Johnston.

No evidence was given which would throw light upon the perpetrators of the crime, nor lead to the identity of the parents of the child. The authorities are keeping a close watch and it is certain if there is any way to get to the bottom of the mystery they will spare no pains in doing so.
The jury returned a verdict last night, showing that the infant came
to its death at the hands of some unknown party or parties.

The remains were laid to rest Sunday afternoon in Locust Hill cemetery, having been turned over to Undertaker Joe Brewer on Saturday evening.

WITNESSES RETURN

What the Grand Jury Got Out of Chester Citizens is Problematical.

The Chester witnesses who were summoned to testify before the grand jury of Hancock county yesterday have all returned to town. It is impossible to tell what the outcome will be, but it is not thought there will be any serious results.

It is understood the Good Citizens'
league was instrumental in having
the men summoned, and that an attempt was made to show the liquor was sold in Chester. So far as can be learned the effort was fruitless, as none of the witnesses who testified could be induced to tell anything if they did know.

If the good people of Chester did attempt to unearth violations of the law
in and about Chester, as has been alleged, they were not successful, and it is likely the movement for reform
which has been so strong for several months will have received such a setback that the agitation will be stopped.

Bethany Trolley Line.
The Brooke county court has granted to H. G. Lazear the right of way to construct and operate a street railway
between Wellsburg and Bethany. Mr.
Lazear represents a company which has been trying to secure a franchise
for many months. This is in competition with another company who sought
the same privilege. A company which,
it is said, is financially capable, now
has a clean field.

The Tone of Machinery.
Engineers judge of the condition of their machinery by the tone it gives out while running. Every engine, whether stationary or locomotive, has
a particular tone of its own. The engineer becomes accustomed to that,
and any departure from it at once ex-
cites a suspicion that all is not right.
The engineer may not know what is the matter. He may have no ear for music, but the change in the tone of
his machine will be instantly perceptible, will be instantly recognized and will start him on an immediate investigation.

Electricity Among the Japanese.
The Japanese understood electricity
as an attractive force, of which they were very secret. The Greeks and Romans also knew something of the magnet as an attractive force known to modern science as an electrical attraction, something like the loadstone of the Chinese. They are supposed to be ignorant of its popularity, though in their secret records there are mentions of sacred forces which none but God knew and must not be tampered with
by man.

A NEED EMPHASIZED.

That the sentiment of the party is the same at both ends of the county, as regards the delegate system of conventions, is shown by the following editorial in the Salem Daily News, which undoubtedly voices the opinion of the Republicans of northern Colum-biana county: "There are comparatively few Republicans in the county who will argue strenuously that the delegate system is an improvement up-
on the old primary election in nominating candidates for county offices,
or that it constitutes a cure for the
evils and abuses which had of late
years militated against the efficiency
and fairness of the county primary.
As a heroic measure to emphasize the
need of reform in the primary system,
the experiment with the delegate convention may serve a purpose. One thing seems to be certain: We can never secure a system which shall approximately carry out the will of the voters, honestly and fairly, until the primary election shall be conducted
under all the safe-guards of the regular
election, regulated by state laws."

The thing to do now is to impress
the legislators of this county with the necessity of carrying out the wise
suggestions made by Gov. Herrick in his message and providing a just and
reasonable primary election law for the whole state. Our legislators are certainly in a position to be aware
that there is urgent need as well as a strong popular demand for such legislation. If they will bestir themselves
and take the lead in enacting it, we know of no better way in which they
can serve the best interests of their constituents or confer greater benefit
upon the people of the state. The voters of Columbiana county should

make haste to acquaint the local members of the assembly with their sentiments. Write to the senators and representatives and urge upon them the importance of action.

Spring is here and the annual cleaning up of alleys and back yards should proceed energetically. As usual, the lack of a public dumping ground is a serious embarrassment, not only to the city itself, but to every citizen who undertakes a little cleaning on his own hook. A dump would cost little
and in the interests of cleanliness and health the city ought to have it. It is short-sighted economy to overlook
a matter so small in itself yet of so great importance to the city. Let the city provide for the proper disposal of rubbish and filth of every sort and then
see that every citizen obeys the orders and ordinances requiring a genuine cleaning up.

Through much tribulation and
against many difficulties the East Liverpool hospital has progressed thus far.
The ladies of the hospital association have worked nobly, despite dis-
couragements that would have caused
less determined spirits to give up long
ago. We now have a hospital building, but not a hospital. If we are to have that useful and necessary institution, equipped and in working order, it will be necessary for a good
many citizens to go down in their
pockets and produce cash to run it.
Systematic effort in that direction will
doubtless be made, and the responses
should be liberal.

they are sprung. Perhaps he fancies
presidential lightning will strike him

Stanley as a Fighter.

A thoroughly good man was Henry
M. Stanley, whom I first met in the Ashanti expedition. No noise, no danger, ruffled his nerve, and he looked as
cool and self possessed as if he had been at "target practice." Time after time as I turned in his direction I saw him go down to a kneeling position to steady his rifle as he piled the most daring of the enemy with a never failing aim. It is nearly thirty years ago,
and I can still see before me the close
shut lips and determined expression of his manly face, which, when he looked
in my direction, told plainly I had near-
me an Englishman in plain clothes
whom no danger could appall. Had I felt inclined to run away the cool, firm,
unflinching manliness of that face
would have given me fresh courage. I had been previously somewhat prejudiced by others against him, but all
such feelings were slain and buried at Amaoful.—"Lord Wolseley's Recollections."

COUNTY REPUBLICANS MEET NEXT SATURDAY

Date for Primaries is to Be Fixed And
Other Important Matters
Attended To.

A meeting of the county Republican
central committee will be held at New Cumberland next Saturday. When the committees held their last session at
the county seat it accomplished considerable, but the important matter of fixing the time for holding the county
primary election was not taken up for the reason that the representation was
not sufficiently large to obtain a fair
expression on the subject.

A number of other matters will be decided upon at the meeting next Saturday and as usual Chester will be prominently identified with every
move made. The up-county politicians
will favor an early date for the primary election this spring. They will go to the county meeting and insist
that the election be held not later than
the last week in May.

The Chester men who will ask favors
of the Hancock county Republicans
claim that there is no necessity for putting off the primary longer than the date named. They state that their canvass will be in shape by that time to allow the people to express themselves. They will make a stand against permitting members of all parties to vote at the primaries. It is held that election is a purely Republican nomination, and that other party
men have no right to interfere.

DEATH AT THE HANDS OF PERSONS UNKNOWN

Coroner's Jury Unable to Solve the Mystery of the Dead Infant
Found By the River.

The inquest over the remains of the infant which was supposed to have
been murdered and left on the river
bank near the West Virginia end of the bridge a few days ago, was continued last night in the office of Justice W. C. Johnston.

No evidence was given which would throw light upon the perpetrators of
the crime, nor lead to the identity of the parents of the child. The authorities are keeping a close watch and
it is certain if there is any way to get to the bottom of the mystery they
will spare no pains in doing so.

The jury returned a verdict last
night, showing that the infant came
to its death at the hands of some unknown party or parties.

The remains were laid to rest Sunday afternoon in Locust Hill cemetery, having been turned over to Undertaker Joe Brewer on Saturday
evening.

WITNESSES RETURN

What the Grand Jury Got Out of Chester Citizens Is Problematical.

The Chester witnesses who were
summoned to testify before the grand jury of Hancock county yesterday have
all returned to town. It is impossible
to tell what the outcome will be, but it is not thought there will be any serious results.

It is understood the Good Citizens'
league was instrumental in having
the men summoned, and that an attempt was made to show that liquor
was sold in Chester. So far as can be learned the effort was fruitless, as
none of the witnesses who testified
could be induced to tell anything if
they did know.

If the good people of Chester did attempt to unearth violations of the law
in and about Chester, as has been alleged, they were not successful, and
it is likely the movement for reform
which has been so strong for several months will have received such a setback that the agitation will be stopped.

Bethany Trolley Line.

The Brooke county court has granted
to H. G. Lazear the right of way to construct and operate a street railway
between Wellsburg and Bethany. Mr.
Lazear represents a company which
has been trying to secure a franchise
for many months. This is in competition with another company who sought
the same privilege. A company which,
it is said, is financially capable, now
has a clean field.

The Tone of Machinery.

Engineers judge of the condition of
their machinery by the tone it gives
out while running. Every engine,
whether stationary or locomotive, has
a particular tone of its own. The engineer becomes accustomed to that,
and any departure from it at once ex-
cites a suspicion that all is not right.
The engineer may not know what is
the matter. He may have no ear for music, but the change in the tone of
his machine will be instantly perceptible, and will start him on an immediate investigation.

Electricity Among the Japanese.

The Japanese understood electricity
as an attractive force, of which they were very secret. The Greeks and Romans also knew something of the magnet as an attractive force known to modern science as an electrical attraction, something like the loadstone of
the Chinese. They are supposed to be ignorant of its popularity, though in their secret records there are mentions of sacred forces which none but God knew and must not be tampered with
by man.

ROUGH SAILING FOR EVIL DOERS

Mayor Fogo to Stop Sunday Selling and Put Lid on All Law Breakers.

AFTER SALOON LOITERERS

Wave of Reform to Pass Over City Is Ultimatum of Chief Official—Arrest All Caught Violating City Ordinances.

The lid is to be placed over Wellsville by Mayor Fogo, with the assistance of the police force. No more will the actions of evil doers be tolerated. It has not been announced that a tidal wave of reform has struck the little city, but the fact remains the same, that it will be but a few days until there will be something doing.

A foretaste of what can be expected were the incidents in police court Sunday. Without the aid of a press agent Mayor Fogo has commenced his spring cleaning, and he says it will be a cleaning that he hopes will be lasting.

Among other things which will take place soon are these: Saloons must keep closed after hours and especially on Sunday. Gambling, if there is any within the city, must stop. Those who persist in loitering in saloons on Sunday, whether they are there for the purpose of obtaining drinks or not, will be hauled up in the patrol. Corner loafing is under the ban. Insulting women as they pass along the streets may result in a workhouse sentence. If there are any more wrongs not on the Wellsville calendar they will be compelled to cease. This, in a nutshell, is what can be expected in the future from the Wellsville police courts.

When six men were pulled at the Frank Geisse saloon last Sunday, charged with loitering in a saloon on Sunday, they were the first to be up under the new ordinance, since it became a law. This proved a surprise to the men when the charge was read to them, for few thought there was such an ordinance on the books, and those who did know of the measure did not think that it would be enforced. This is where a number of people were sadly misled.

"The time has come when Wellsville has to cease to be what is often termed a wide open town," said Mayor Fogo today, "and I propose to see to it in the future that all the laws and city ordinances are enforced."

"There is a limit to all things," said

the mayor, "and it seems that that time has come. Hereafter no saloons will be allowed to keep open on Sunday or after hours, for if the owners persist in doing this they will be compelled to answer to charges when caught."

Some weeks ago Mayor Fogo caused all houses of ill fame to close, and since then none have been open. The better element of citizens commended the mayor for his stand. That he has determined to make the city better by the enforcement of all the ordinances is a commendable act upon his part.

It has been the custom of young men to congregate at street corners and pass insulting remarks about any women as they pass. Two young men have been arrested on this charge, and were to be given a hearing last night. The men are said to be William Pugh and John Moon. They were asked to appear before the mayor last Friday evening to answer to a charge of street loafing. Others caught loafing on street corners hereafter will be treated likewise.

A patrolman is to be stationed at Ninth and Main streets daily hereafter to keep the crowd of young boys who loaf there on the jump. If they resist to do this they will be immediately arrested. So many complaints have been filed with the mayor about street corner loafers that the limit of patience has been exhausted.

It is possible that all the patrolmen under Chief Houser will be instructed as to what will be expected of them within a day or so. That Mayor Fogo has made up his mind to better the city there is no question. The cleaning commenced Sunday and will now go to the limit.

WILL SEEK BALM FROM CORPORATION

West Enders Say Their Property Is Depreciating in Value Because of Proposed Yards.

Residents of the West End, especially those who own property in the vicinity of the proposed location of the new Cleveland & Pittsburgh yards, claim they will not stop the company from laying new tracks across the streets, which the company has asked council to vacate. Instead, compensation will be asked from the company through the courts for any damage that may result to their realty. These people claim that if the company wants any piece of property in that section of the city, it can be purchased for its face value and the matter will end there.

The story is now told that the property owners in that section of the city propose to combine their interests and through the courts seek damages from the railroad company. One of their number will be selected, whose name will appear in these actions, and the expense of the cases will be paid pro rata among all those connected with the affair.

One property owner said today that when the railroad company first proposed to enlarge its yards in the West End a mass meeting of the property owners of that section was held. Two other meetings were held and some money was collected then to be paid attorneys as a retaining fee. These lawyers attended the meetings, but their advice is not now announced.

The statement is made that the improvements of the railroad company in the West End is depreciating the value of the property south of the railroad, and that those who own property there for the purpose of renting it are not receiving as much rent now as they did before the work was started.

MEASURES DISTANCE TO A NEW SALOON

Councilman Anderson Thinks New Second Street Saloon Is Too Near First Ward School House.

Thinking that a new saloon which is about to be opened on Second street was too near the First ward school house, Councilman R. C. Anderson measured the distance yesterday and found the location outside the dead line. It is now claimed that a second saloon is also to be opened near the school house soon, but it is proposed to keep that place outside the limit of space designated by law.

The new saloon is to be operated by an Italian, and no end of displeasure exists because the place is to be opened so near a school house. Because it is located outside the "dead line" no steps can be taken to close it.

LOCATES PIERS

Rapid Work Is Being Done on Underground Work at New Pumping Station.

The location for several new piers at the new pumping station were staked out yesterday afternoon by City Engineer Harry Leith. Two of the piers have been completed, and the other four will be finished possibly by Thursday.

The valve chamber has been closed over with a thick bed of concrete

EASY WAY TO CURE CATARRH

Breathe Hyomei and Kill All Catarrhal Germs—"Money Back If It Fails," Says Will Reed.

There is no dangerous stomach druging when using Hyomei. The healing and aromatic balsams which compose this wonderful treatment are breathed through a neat pocket inhaler that comes with every $1 outfit.

In this way, the germ-killing and health-giving Hyomei penetrates to the most remote cells of the lungs. It searches out and kills disease germs in the air passages of the head, throat and nose, soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane, and absolutely drives catarrh from the system.

Such remarkable results have followed the use of Hyomei by the best people in East Liverpool that Will Reed has the greatest confidence in its power to cure catarrh. He believes in it so thoroughly, that he will give his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure, the purchaser to be sole judge.

This is an unusual offer and the first time that any medicine or treatment for the cure of catarrh has been sold in this way. If it cures, the expense is trifling, while if it fails, the cost is absolutely nothing.

If you are fortunate enough not to be troubled with catarrh tell your friends of Will Reed's offer and get them to take advantage of it.

and work is now in progress taking the large timber braces from the ground, which kept the banks from caving in on the well hole wall. The space about the well hole wall is being filled in with earth and work on the superstructure will be ready to commence as soon as the water works trustees complete the contract with George Murdock, of Wellsville.

It is thought by Mr. Murdock that he can complete the new station within 90 days after the contract is let and possible before that time.

COSTLY MONUMENT

One to Be Erected on Corner Lot in St. Elizabeth's Cemetery at Cost of Nearly $1,000.

There will soon be erected on the Connors' lot in St. Elizabeth's cemetery one of the finest and at the same time most costly monuments ever placed in a Wellsville cemetery. The monument is to cost about $900. It was ordered several months ago and it has been shipped from the Vermont granite quarries and is expected to be received in Wellsville within a fortnight. The base alone will weigh 8,500 pounds and the monument itself will be about seven feet in height.

Several other costly monuments will be placed in Wellsville cemeteries this summer, the contracts for these having already been let to Rufus Rogers.

NEW OIL COMPANY

Options Property North of Wellsville And Organization Will Be Completed Later in the Week.

Preliminary arrangements are being made for the formation of a new oil company in Wellsville. A meeting to form a permanent organization will be held late this week. Those interested in the new concern have several hundred acres of land under lease about two miles north of Wellsville, which property they claim is in the oil belt, similar to that in the Knoxville field. The company will be composed entirely of Wellsville township capital, and all drilling will be under the direction of Wellsville men. The concern will be chartered in Ohio.

NEARLY $12,000 REQUIRED

Estimate of City Engineer on Cost of Completing McQueen's Run Sewer.

City Engineer Leith estimates that it will require $11,925 to complete the McQueen's Run storm sewer. This estimate was presented to the board of service at its meeting this morning.

The time to extend the receiving of bids for the proposed improvements on Ninth, Twelfth, Eighteenth and Twentieth streets was extended until the next meeting of the board. Some contractors failed to enter bids on the work, thinking there is no money available for the work. For the Ninth street improvement there is $212.40 in the hands of City Auditor McGregor.

Hereafter whenever gas companies or plumbers desire to tear up streets, they will be compelled to obtain a permit for such work from the board of service. The gas company will place a $2,000 bond with the board and a cash deposit of $50, which is the plan followed by the companies operating in East Liverpool.

Money for the new receiving vault will be available this week. The contract of Rufus Rogers, who secured the work, was given to the board of service today and it will be signed at once. A bond of $3,000 will be given the board as soon as the contract is signed.

The board will hold a special meeting Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

Rushing Work on New Office.

Workmen are engaged in placing a new steel ceiling in the office of the Wellsville plant of the American Sheet & Tin Plate company, which was partially destroyed by fire in January. Painters have been working on the interior of the building for several days. It is thought that at least two of the offices in this building will be ready for occupancy within a few weeks. The entire building will be ready for occupancy it is thought within a month at least.

Surveying Street Railway Line.

Two surveyors are at work for the United Power company in Wellsville making a survey of the street railway line. The men have worked their way from the state line extension and will continue until the end is reached at Clark avenue and Twentieth street. This work is for the purpose of making a map of the entire road, which will be kept on file at the office of the company. The company has nothing of this sort on hand.

Walker Infested By Tramps.

Walker is again infested by tramps. These men have been begging in Wellsville during the past few days, and they are now to be driven out of the city. At intervals along the railroad between Wellsville and Walker small camp fires can be seen burning at night, and about them can be seen a number of hoboes. Any of them caught begging in Wellsville hereafter will be arrested and put to work on the streets.

Painfully Injured.

D. D. Duty, of Commerce street, Wellsville, a railroad mail clerk, running between Wellsville and Bellaire, met with a most painful accident while his car was being switched yesterday in the latter city. He was just taking his lead pencil from his pocket when the car was bumped by the engine, and the pencil point was driven half way through his right hand, breaking off there.

Will Raise Railway Joints.

The United Power company, as soon as the frost is out of the ground, will commence the work of raising all the joints in the road on Main street. Not one joint is to be missed. During the winter season these joints have been sinking until now a ride over the Main street line is rough traveling.

City Scales in Use.

After being clogged up with mud, snow and ice since December last, the scales in Fifth street at city hall are now in working order. The keys are in the possession of Janitor Elliott, of city hall, who is acting as weighmaster. These scales have been used rather extensively within the past few days and as soon as the fact becomes known generally that the scales are ready for use business will increase.

Bell Fails to Tap.

The city hall bell has failed to tap for several days. Just who is to blame for this no one knows. Today several business men stood at the post-office entrance awaiting the big bell to tap, not knowing that it was out of business. It is proposed to request the city officials to ascertain the cause of the bell not tapping as has been the custom.

Sold His House.

James Patterson yesterday purchased the property on White street owned by Albert Greene for $275. Green has been in jail for several days. Patterson paid his fine yesterday, and after deducting the amount from the purchase of the house, gave the remainder to Greene, which was but a few dollars after some obligations were lifted.

Proceeds Over $100.

The committee in charge of the minstrel show given in the Cooper opera house by the Friars' club, estimates that over $100 was cleared by the event. The money is to be used to complete the furnishing of the club rooms in the Whitacre block. It is possible the club will give a private dance in their rooms next week, the date to be selected later.

New Fire Alarm Boxes.

These boxes will be located at Tenth and Commerce streets and at Clark and Kelly avenues. The boxes were taken from the central fire station in the patrol wagon to the corners where they were to remain.

Death of a Child.

ROUGH SAILING FOR EVIL DOERS

Mayor Fogo to Stop Sunday Selling and Put Lid on All Law Breakers.

AFTER SALOON LOITERERS

Wave of Reform to Pass Over City Is Ultimatum of Chief Official—Arrest All Caught Violating City Ordinances.

The lid is to be placed over Wellsville by Mayor Fogo, with the assistance of the police force. No more will the actions of evil doers be tolerated. It has not been announced that a tidal wave of reform has struck the little city, but the fact remains the same, that it will be but a few days until there will be something doing.

A foretaste of what can be expected were the incidents in police court Sunday. Without the aid of a press agent Mayor Fogo has commenced his spring cleaning, and he says it will be a cleaning that he hopes will be lasting.

Among other things which will take place soon are these: Saloons must keep closed after hours and especially on Sunday. Gambling, if there is any within the city, must stop. Those who persist in loitering in saloons on Sunday, whether they are there for the purpose of obtaining drinks or not, will be hauled up in the patrol. Corner loafing is under the ban. Insulting women as they pass along the streets may result in a workhouse sentence. If there are any more wrongs not on the Wellsville calendar they will be compelled to cease. This, in a nutshell, is what can be expected in the future from the Wellsville police courts.

When six men were pulled at the Frank Geisse saloon last Sunday, charged with loitering in a saloon on Sunday, they were the first to be up under the new ordinance, since it became a law. This proved a surprise to the men when the charge was read to them, for few thought there was such an ordinance on the books, and those who did know of the measure did not think that it would be enforced. This is where a number of people were sadly misled.

"The time has come when Wellsville has to cease to be what is often termed a wide open town," said Mayor Fogo today, "and I propose to see to it in the future that all the laws and city ordinances are enforced."

"There is a limit to all things," said

the mayor, "and it seems that that time has come. Hereafter no saloons will be allowed to keep open on Sunday or after hours, for if the owners persist in doing this they will be compelled to answer to charges when caught."

Some weeks ago Mayor Fogo caused all houses of ill fame to close, and since then none have been open. The better element of citizens commended the mayor for his stand. That he has determined to make the city better by the enforcement of all the ordinances is a commendable act upon his part.

It has been the custom of young men to congregate at street corners and pass insulting remarks about any women as they pass. Two young men have been arrested on this charge, and were to be given a hearing last night. The men are said to be William Pugh and John Moon. They were asked to appear before the mayor last Friday evening to answer to a charge of street loafing. Others caught loafing on street corners hereafter will be treated likewise.

A patrolman is to be stationed at Ninth and Main streets daily hereafter to keep the crowd of young boys who loaf there on the jump. If they resist to do this they will be immediately arrested. So many complaints have been filed with the mayor about street corner loafers that the limit of patience has been exhausted.

It is possible that all the patrolmen under Chief Houser will be instructed as to what will be expected of them within a day or so. That Mayor Fogo has made up his mind to better the city there is no question. The cleaning commenced Sunday and will now go to the limit.

WILL SEEK BALM FROM CORPORATION

West Enders Say Their Property Is Depreciating in Value Because of Proposed Yards.

Residents of the West End, especially those who own property in the vicinity of the proposed location of the new Cleveland & Pittsburgh yards, claim they will not stop the company from laying new tracks across the streets, which the company has asked council to vacate. Instead, compensation will be asked from the company through the courts for any damage that may result to their realty. These people claim that if the company wants any piece of property in that section of the city, it can be purchased for its face value and the matter will end there.

The story is now told that the property owners in that section of the city propose to combine their interests and through the courts seek damages from the railroad company. One of their number will be selected, whose name will appear in these actions, and the expense of the cases will be paid pro rata among all those connected with the affair.

One property owner said today that when the railroad company first proposed to enlarge its yards in the West End a mass meeting of the property owners of that section was held. Two other meetings were held and some money was collected then to be paid attorneys as a retaining fee. These lawyers attended the meetings, but their advice is not now announced.

The statement is made that the improvements of the railroad company in the West End is depreciating the value of the property south of the railroad, and that those who own property there for the purpose of renting it are not receiving as much rent now as they did before the work was started.

MEASURES DISTANCE TO A NEW SALOON

Councilman Anderson Thinks New Second Street Saloon Is Too Near First Ward School House.

Thinking that a new saloon which is about to be opened on Second street was too near the First ward school house, Councilman R. C. Anderson measured the distance yesterday and found the location outside the dead line. It is now claimed that a second saloon is also to be opened near the school house soon, but it is proposed to keep that place outside the limit of space designated by law.

The new saloon is to be operated by an Italian, and no end of displeasure exists because the place is to be opened so near a school house. Because it is located outside the "dead line" no steps can be taken to close it.

LOCATES PIERS

Rapid Work Is Being Done on Underground Work at New Pumping Station.

The location for several new piers at the new pumping station were staked out yesterday afternoon by City Engineer Harry Leith. Two of the piers have been completed, and the other four will be finished possibly by Thursday.

The valve chamber has been closed over with a thick bed of concrete,

EASY WAY TO CURE CATARRH

Breathe Hyomei and Kill All Catarrhal Germs—"Money Back If It Fails." Says Will Reed.

There is no dangerous stomach drugging when using Hyomei. The healing and aromatic balsams which compose this wonderful treatment are breathed through a neat pocket inhaler that comes with every $1 outfit.

In this way, the germ-killing and health-giving Hyomei penetrates to the most remote cells of the lungs. It searches out and kills disease germs in the air passages of the head, throat and nose, soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane, and absolutely drives catarrh from the system.

Such remarkable results have followed the use of Hyomei by the best people in East Liverpool that Will Reed has the greatest confidence in its power to cure catarrh. He believes in it so thoroughly, that he will give his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure, the purchaser to be sole judge.

This is an unusual offer and the first time that any medicine or treatment for the cure of catarrh has been sold in this way. If it cures, the expense is trifling, while if it fails, the cost is absolutely nothing.

If you are fortunate enough not to be troubled with catarrh tell your friends of Will Reed's offer and get them to take advantage of it.

and work is now in progress taking the large timber braces from the ground, which kept the banks from caving in on the well hole wall. The space about the well hole wall is being filled in with earth and work on the superstructure will be ready to commence as soon as the water works trustees complete the contract with George Murdock, of Wellsville.

It is thought by Mr. Murdock that he can complete the new station within 90 days after the contract is let and possible before that time.

COSTLY MONUMENT

One to Be Erected on Corner Lot in St. Elizabeth's Cemetery at Cost of Nearly $1,000.

There will soon be erected on the Connors' lot in St. Elizabeth's cemetery one of the finest and at the same time most costly monuments ever placed in a Wellsville cemetery. The monument is to cost about $900. It was ordered several months ago and it has been shipped from the Vermont granite quarries and is expected to be received in Wellsville within a fortnight. The base alone will weigh 8,500 pounds and the monument itself will be about seven feet in height.

Several other costly monuments will be placed in Wellsville cemeteries this summer, the contracts for these having already been let to Rufus Rogers.

NEW OIL COMPANY

Options Property North of Wellsville And Organization Will Be Completed Later in the Week.

Preliminary arrangements are being made for the formation of a new oil company in Wellsville. A meeting to form a permanent organization will be held late this week. Those interested in the new concern have several hundred acres of land under lease about two miles north of Wellsville, which property they claim is in the oil belt, similar to that in the Knoxville field. The company will be composed entirely of Wellsville township capital, and all drilling will be under the direction of Wellsville men. The concern will be chartered in Ohio.

NEARLY $12,000 REQUIRED

Estimate of City Engineer on Cost of Completing McQueen's Run Sewer.

City Engineer Leith estimates that it will require $11,925 to complete the McQueen's Run storm sewer. This estimate was presented to the board of service at its meeting this morning.

The time to extend the receiving of bids for the proposed improvements on Ninth, Twelfth, Eighteenth and Twentieth streets was extended until the next meeting of the board. Some contractors failed to enter bids on the work, thinking there is no money available for the work. For the Ninth street improvement there is $12,400 in the hands of City Auditor McGregor.

Hereafter whenever gas companies or plumbers desire to tear up streets, they will be compelled to obtain a permit for such work from the board of service. The gas company will place a $2,000 bond with the board and a cash deposit of $50, which is the plan followed by the companies operating in East Liverpool.

Money for the new receiving vault will be available this week. The contract of Rufus Rogers, who secured the work, was given to the board of service today and it will be signed at once. A bond of $3,000 will be given the board as soon as the contract is signed.

The board will hold a special meeting Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

Rushing Work on New Office.

Workmen are engaged in placing a new steel ceiling in the office of the Wellsville plant of the American Sheet & Tin Plate company, which was partially destroyed by fire in January. Painters have been working on the interior of the building for several days. It is thought that at least two of the offices in this building will be ready for occupancy within a few weeks. The entire building will be ready for occupancy it is thought within a month at least.

Surveying Street Railway Line.

Two surveyors are at work for the United Power company in Wellsville making a survey of the street railway line. The men have worked their way from the state line extension and will continue until the end is reached at Clark avenue and Twentieth street. This work is for the purpose of making a map of the entire road, which will be kept on file at the office of the company. The company has nothing of this sort on hand.

Walker Infested By Tramps.

Walker is again infested by tramps. These men have been begging in Wellsville during the past few days, and they are now to be driven out of the city. At intervals along the railroad between Wellsville and Walker small camp fires can be seen burning at nights, and about them can be seen a number of hoboos. Any of them caught begging in Wellsville hereafter will be arrested and put to work on the streets.

Painfully Injured.

D. D. Duty, of Commerce street, Wellsville, a railroad mail clerk, running between Wellsville and Bellaire, met with a most painful accident while his car was being switched yesterday in the latter city. He was just taking his lead pencil from his pocket when the car was bumped by the engine, and the pencil point was driven half way through his right hand, breaking off there.

Will Raise Railway Joints.

The United Power company, as soon as the frost is out of the ground, will commence the work of raising all the joints in the road on Main street. Not one joint is to be missed. During the winter season these joints have been sinking until now a ride over the Main street line is rough traveling.

City Scales in Use.

After being clogged up with mud, snow and ice since December last, the scales in Fifth street at city hall are now in working order. The keys are in the possession of Janitor Elliott, of city hall, who is acting as weighmaster. These scales have been used rather extensively within the past few days and as soon as the fact becomes known generally that the scales are ready for use business will increase.

Bell Fails to Tap.

The city hall bell has failed to tap for several days. Just who is to blame for this no one knows. Today several business men stood at the post-office entrance awaiting the big bell to tap, not knowing that it was out of business. It is proposed to request the city officials to ascertain the cause of the bell not tapping as has been the custom.

Sold His House.

James Patterson yesterday purchased the property on White street owned by Albert Greene for $275. Green has been in jail for several days. Patterson paid his fine yesterday, and after deducting the amount from the purchase of the house, gave the remainder to Greene, which was but a few dollars after some obligations were lifted.

Proceeds Over $100.

The committee in charge of the minstrel show given in the Cooper opera house by the Friars' club, estimates that over $100 was cleared by the event. The money is to be used to complete the furnishing of the club rooms in the Whitacre block. It is possible the club will give a private dance in their rooms next week, the date to be selected later.

New Fire Alarm Boxes.

Two new fire alarm boxes were installed this morning in the West End by Chief Phillips, of the fire department. These boxes will be located at Tenth and Commerce streets and at Clark and Kelly avenues. The boxes were taken from the central fire station in the patrol wagon to the corners where they were to remain.

Death of a Child.

After a short illness, the four-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. William Simon, of the West End, died last night. The funeral services will be held at the home tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be at Spring Hill cemetery.

ACT QUICKLY

Delay Has Been Dangerous in East Liverpool.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in times of danger. Backache is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly. Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.

Plenty of evidence to prove this. Mrs. Howard Orr, of 220 Thompson Hill, says: "My sister, Mrs. Borlan, while visiting us, recommended Doan's Kidney Pills so highly that I was induced to try them. I had severe attacks of kidney complaint. Sometimes I was so bad I could not get up. Many times my neighbors came and found me lying on the lounge suffering when I intended doing a big day's work. I was so miserable I could do nothing. After my sister told me of the pills I made up my mind to try them, and got a box at the W. & W. Pharmacy. They did just what they claimed they would do, cured me sound and well in a few days. My little girl was feeling poorly and had a sallow complexion for some time. I gave her a few doses and after their use she felt splendidly."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

London, March 29.—The Seoul correspondent of the Daily Mail says that in an engagement March 23, which Japanese infantry had with Cossacks between Anfu and Chong Ju, the Japanese were victorious, but lost 50 killed.

Niuchwang, March 29.—The Russians have proclaimed martial law over this city and hauled down the American and British flags from the property of citizens of American or British nationality. The foreigners protested at the action.

Senator Carmack Criticizes Recent Pension Order.

Washington, March 29.—The senate discussed the recent order of the pension bureau making old age an evidence of disability, and then passed the District of Columbia appropriation bill. The discussion of the pension order was based on the resolution of Mr. Carmack directing the committee on the judiciary to inquire into the authority of the executive branch of the government to make such an order. Mr. Carmack contended that no such authority exists, but several Republican senators argued that the order was in line with the regulation issued by Judge Lochren, commissioner of pensions under Mr. Cleveland, fixing 65 years of age as an evidence of infirmity. They also declared that the new order would have only the effect of affording prima facie evidence of disability and not lyzes trade.

Senator Carmack Criticizes Recent Pension Order.

Washington, March 29.—The senate discussed the recent order of the pension bureau making old age an evidence of disability, and then passed the District of Columbia appropriation bill. The discussion of the pension order was based on the resolution of Mr. Carmack directing the committee on the judiciary to inquire into the authority of the executive branch of the government to make such an order. Mr. Carmack contended that no such authority exists, but several Republican senators argued that the order was in line with the regulation issued by Judge Lochren, commissioner of pensions under Mr. Cleveland, fixing 65 years of age as an evidence of infirmity. They also declared that the new order would have only the effect of affording prima facie evidence of disability and not lyzes trade.

Unfortunate Pair Commit Suicide When Fortune Fles.

St. Louis, March 29.—After earning and losing $500,000 in New York city John B. Altman and his wife, when about to lose their home in St. Louis, turned on the gas and died together. The pair left a note saying that they had agreed to die after chloroforming a pet cat, which was all they had untrammelled by debts. The cat's body was found in the cellar.

Altman, who was 68 years old, and his wife, Juliana, came to the United States 15 years ago. They accumulated half a million dollars by speculation in New York city, lost nearly all their fortune by signing notes for friends, removing to St. Louis, purchased a home with the remnant of their fortune. Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in times of danger. Backache is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly. Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.

Plenty of evidence to prove this.

Mrs. Howard Orr, of 229 Thompson Hill, says: "My sister, Mrs. Borlan, while visiting us, recommended Doan's Kidney Pills so highly that I was induced to try them. I had severe attacks of kidney complaint. Sometimes I was so bad I could not get up. Many times my neighbors came and found me lying on the lounge suffering when I intended doing a big day's work. I was so miserable I could do nothing. After my sister told me of the pills I made up my mind to try them, and got a box at the W. & W. Pharmacy. They did just what they claimed they would do, cured me sound and well in a few days. My little girl was feeling poorly and had a sallow complexion for some time. I gave her a few doses and after their use she felt splendidly."

RUSSIAN LOSS NOT REPORTED

Representatives of the Czar Haul

Down American and British Flags

at New Chwang—Protests Filed by Foreigners Are Disregarded.

London, March 29.—The Seoul correspondent of the Daily Mail says that in an engagement March 23, which Japanese infantry had with Cossacks between Anju and Chong Ju, the Japanese were victorious, but lost 50 killed.

Niuchwang, March 29.—The Russians have proclaimed martial law over this city and hauled down the American and British flags from the property of citizens of American or British nationality. The foreigners protested at the action.

All exports are declared contraband of war, and nothing can be exported unless the value of the cargo in silver is deposited at the port as a guarantee against the shipment of the goods.

At the same time the going out of the ice opened the port to commerce. Advice from Mukden state that General Kuropatkin has left that city and is now on his way to Liao-Yang, a city halfway between Mukden and this port.

The declaration of martial law came after a conference of the foreign consuls with the civil administrator. The Russian official informed the foreign representatives that the full intention of the order was the proclamation of martial law and the annulment of consular jurisdiction. It was agreed that the rigid enforcement of the order will not take place until the foreign governments act in order to lessen complications.

The action apparently defeats the American intention of placing consuls in Manchuria.

Since the opening of the port five junks have arrived and seven steamers are due. Several others are expected shortly. The Russians have not blocked the river up to the present.

London, March 29.—Up to last night no official communication had reached the foreign office confirming the declaration of martial law at New Chwang and officials are inclined to the opinion that this indicated that the Russian government had not yet sanctioned Viceroy Alexieff's action.

The declaration of martial law is somewhat anxiously discussed by the London morning newspapers, among which the question has arisen as to whether Russia is desirous of dragging China into the conflict.

The Standard recognizing that the neutral powers may protest, considers that "it will be difficult to refuse to either belligerents the right to regard strategic considerations as paramount over all others in Manchuria."

The Morning Post considers that Russia's action "is calculated to relieve Japan of some embarrassment by removing some of the difficulties Japan would have experienced in dealing with New Chwang in the event of it becoming necessary to attack the Russian forces at that point."

No further news has been received here regarding the Port Arthur engagement with the exception that the Daily Telegraph's Yin Kow correspondent says the Japanese bombardment badly damaged the forward barbette of the Russian battleship Crayevitch. The correspondent adds: "According to a rumor, 65 Japanese transports, escorted by four cruisers, approached New Chwang Saturday and then departed southward. It is stated Viceroy Alexieff will return to Europe in a few days."

Shan-Hai-Kwan, March 29.—The Japanese are making soundings at Chin-Wang-Tao, eight miles from here. This is close to the ocean end of the great wall.

Paris, March 29.—"It is certain," says the St. Petersburg correspondent of the Matin, "that the Russian cruiser Boyarin was blown up by touching a Russian torpedo eight days after the torpedo transport Yenesel was blown up as the result of accidentally striking a mine at Port Arthur."

company, with which Maj. Hugh C. Dennis, president of the Rialto company, had been associated.

Numerous letters written by Burton showed that the Senator was using his influence to prevent the issuance of a fraud order against the Rialto Grain and Securities Company.

Barton submitted regular reports to the Rialto people, telling them how matters were progressing at Washington, advising them of complaints filed at the postoffice department, and closing with the assurance that "if you look after things at your end of the line I will attend to matters here."

Hemphill Joins the Browns. Youngstown, March 29.—Charles Hemphill, the crack outfielder of the St. Louis American league team, who refused to sign with the Browns because of a $100 cut in his salary, has left for St. Louis to join his team.

Hemphill has been dicker with Secretary Hedges for the past week and this evening received a telegram from that official saying that his terms had been granted and for him to come to St. Louis at once, so all existing difficulties could be settled. Hemphill left at once. He expects to spend a couple of weeks at Hot Springs in order to get into condition before joining the Browns.

Sarcasm.

In a volume of memoirs it is told that on the first council day after Lord Derby's elevation to the premiership Greville showed his disapproval by not appearing in his place as clerk. Some busybody asked Lord Derby whether he had noticed Greville's absence, and Lord Derby replied, with a face of benevolent apology: "No, really? You know, I am the most inattentive fellow in the world about these things. I never notice, when I ring the bell, whether John or Thomas answers it."

A LOVELY FACE

Beauty Is the Greatest Power of Attraction.

WOMEN RECOGNIZE IT; MEN BOW BEFORE ITS SHRINE.

The Secret of Good Looks Disclosed. How to Look Your Best.

Never was there a time when women did not try to make themselves beautiful. What is so lovely as a round, rosy face, white forehead and full red lips; what so annoying as the black heads and pimples on the face, with the dirty, greasy look which always accompanies them. Life is not worth living, the young girl thinks, because of the bad, unpleasant look of her skin, which she tries in vain to improve by the use of various cosmetics, ointments and powders, not knowing that all the while the trouble is not in the skin itself, but in the system. It is some times absolutely dangerous to use outside applications, for if the skin is simply cleared the disease is likely to attack some internal organ of the body, where it may prove fatal to life itself. But in purifying the blood the cure is natural, permanent and without any injury.

Miss Beatrice Shansky, 102 East 82d street, New York city, says:

"My work is very hard on the nerves, and I had become very nervous. I was always tired and worn out when night came. I was pale, and was getting very thin, and I did not feel like eating. Every little thing upset me, and I suffered a great deal from nervous headache. When I was feeling as though I could not stand it much longer Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy was recommended to me. Some other members of my family had taken it a couple of years ago, and it did them so much good I decided to try it. I never took any other medicine that helped me as much as this did, and I am grateful to Dr. Greene for his wonderful remedy. I gained flesh rapidly, and after taking two bottles, now have a splendid color. My nerves are strong, and I no longer feel the strain of my work upon them. Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy has done for me what nothing else could do, and now I am able to do my work without being all dragged out when the day is done. I know Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy to be a splendid remedy for all business women, because it will keep them from breaking down under the nervous strain."

It is letters like these which prove the wonderful power of Dr. Greene's Nervura, the great blood and nerve remedy. By the use of this marvelous medicine the system is cleansed, giving a clear and healthy bloom, and freeing the complexion from blotches and pimples. It is nature's own remedy, a purely vegetable and perfectly harmless compound, the discovery of the celebrated Boston physician, Dr. Greene, of 101 Fifth avenue, New York city, who can always be consulted free of charge, either personally or by letter.

"Good day, Mordecai," he said in greeting to a rotund merchant Quaker who joined him. "I see you also looking. What think you our Virginia hot bloods will brew next in their den yonder?"

The Quaker frowned. "I love them not," he answered. "What saith the Scriptures? 'For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds.'"

"Gentlemen of birth and wealth, forsooth," continued Galloway angrily, "and yet prating like the veriest clowns of independence and brotherhood! Whose was the bill to separate from Great Britain? Richard Henry Lee's. And who has written the Declaration that is to be thrust beneath the delegates' noses tomorrow? Thomas Jefferson. These Virginians! Would we had never heard of Virginia before we came to this!"

"Look you!"—He broke off and pointed with his stick where a coach bowed along High street. It was richly furnished and bore arms on its panels. On the cushions, exquisitely dressed in a white uniform, sat a blocky, military looking man with bushy wig and foreign mustachios. He wore a cocked hat.

"'Tis M. Pliarne," said the Quaker. "These French parasites with powder to peddle, Friend Joseph, would joy to see the colonies plunged into bloody strife. They would batten on our extremity, for whosoever the carcass is, there the eagles be gathered together."

"French officers!" ejaculated Galloway. "Aye, or adventurers! As like to be one as another. Mayhap M. Pliarne goes to see the precious envoy whose newcoming the town gaves about."

"He is to be received?"

"Tomorrow afternoon. 'Tis an open secret. Notice was sent the house this morning."

"'Twas averted in the street but now that he is come from Louis XVI." "Let them jabber!" grumbled Galloway. "Little store is to be set by these fine envoys. I mind me when the Frenchman came to the congress last November. You heard of that, mayhap. There was the same excitement; a committee appointed, too, I remember. John Jay was upon it. They met the personage in a room in Carpenter's hall, and what think you they found? Why, a little old frog eater with a club-foot, who when they asked him for his authority drew his hand across his throat, and says he, 'Gentlemen, I shall take care of my head.' That was all they could get out of him. Some imbecile belike. And even then there were those who saw great signs in it. A pest on all such, say I!"

The Quaker shook his head doubtfully. "Yet there is much hoped for from this present message," he said. "I heard it on good authority some months ago that a French narguis was to come hither. 'Twas said Benjamin Franklin had written of the matter from London. Mayhap this is the same."

"Bosh!" sniffed Galloway. "'Tis absurd, I say, the faith that is put in such a vain and empty hope! I do know that half the delegates have some such folly in their heads. The Declaration is to be offered for signing tomorrow, and, look you, it is in the minds of some members to retard action upon it, hoping such a message from France may bolster faint hearts."

"Then dost not think they will sign, then?"

"God forbid!" rejoined Galloway fervently. "I cannot believe we are so near madness as that. And yet I would that naught had been heard of a message from France. Methinks tomorrow will be warm. Good night to you, Mordecai."

As the two friends talked the chiming had clanged from Christ church, and just as the tones sounded a stout-trunked old man with a shrewd, simple face under a broad hat lifted the latch of a nearby gate which barred an oblong green yard from the street.

Therein under a mulberry tree where yellow cabbage butterflies went kissing wings a chubby woman was sitting by a table whereon stood some books and a glass bottle containing a two headed snake in spirits. Two touselled children rolled and romped unheeded under foot. The film of twilight was falling from a cooling sky.

"You are late, father," the woman said as the old man greeted her. "Supper is almost ready. Young Mr. Jefferson has sent word that he will be here this evening. I do hope," she added good naturedly, "that you won't sit up all night again over that tiresome paper he is writing. Laws! One would think it had been a real speech."

She ran to fetch a dish of tea, and her father sat down in his chair and took off his hat. His head was bald, with a fringe of white hair. He was mopping his forehead with a large kerchief when she returned with the tea.

"Bless me!" she said as the gate clicked. "Here is some one to see you already. A young man and handsome," she whispered, as he came nearer. "But how pale!" It was Armand.

"Is this Dr. Franklin?" he inquired. "It is."

"Sir," said Armand, "a packet was given secretly into your hands to hold for me some time since, sealed with a red seal bearing four lances."

Dr. Franklin drew his brows together with a glance of surprise and shook his head.

"Surely you have received it?"

There was a curious rigor of anxiety in the tone that caused Dr. Franklin to glance sharply at his questioner. The scrutiny satisfied him, for the look of suspicion that had been stiffened by the strenuous times faded into his habitual benevolence.

"I recall none such," he answered gravely. "What name did it bear?"

"It bore no name." The tone shook now with a confusion of apprehension.

"I fear that is all the more reason that I could not have forgot it. These are troublous days, sir, and faith not always to be relied upon. To whom did you intrust this document?"

Something like fear had come into the other's eyes, and Dr. Franklin for the first time noted with concern his agitation and pallor.

"To a young lady of Virginia."

"I am sorry, sir, deeply sorry," said the old man, "but no such packet has been put into my hands at any time."

"Poor young man!" sighed the motherly woman a few minutes later as she set the table for supper. "What think you could have been in it, father? He looked as if it had meant life or death to him."

Armand walked slowly through several side streets to the Red Lion tavern, on Sansaffra street, one of the less pretentious inns. Here in a dim parlor on the ground floor waited the occupant of the fine coach which had roused "Is this Dr. Franklin?" the spleen of Joseph Galloway. His hat was flung on a chair, and he strode up and down, his mustachios bristling with impatience.

As Armand entered he embraced him effusively in the French fashion.

"All goes well," he cried. "I have been discreet and have done all you instructed. The congress has named three members to receive you tomorrow at 1 o'clock. Ventrebleu! With the Declaration hanging fire you may believe how eager they are. I have brought your clothes too. Nom de Dieu!" he exclaimed, holding Armand's arms affectionately. "To know you were in a British prison! Thank God you escaped their clutches, and just in the nick of time too! You shall tell me about it one day."

"Pliarne!" Armand broke in upon the other's chatter. "Pliarne! The letter! I have not got it."

"Not got it?" Pliarne repeated in amazed surprise.

"No, I sent it here to Philadelphia to Dr. Franklin. I did not tell you this, since I expected to find it here. Well, I have seen Dr. Franklin, and it has not been delivered."

Pliarne's face was a study of dismay. "And what will you do?"

Armand had no time to reply, for at that moment there came a knock at the door, and it opened.

Instantly Pliarne bent low in a series of bows to Armand.

A LOVELY FACE

Beauty Is the Greatest Power of Attraction.

WOMEN RECOGNIZE IT; MEN BOW BEFORE ITS SHRINE.

The Secret of Good Looks Disclosed. How to Look Your Best.

Never was there a time when women did not try to make themselves beautiful. What is so lovely as a round, rosy face, white forehead and full red lips; what so annoying as the black heads and pimples on the face, with the dirty, greasy look which always accompanies them. Life is not worth living, the young girl thinks, because of the bad, unpleasant look of her skin, which she tries in vain to improve by the use of various cosmetics, ointments and powders, not knowing that all the while the trouble is not in the skin itself, but in the system. It is some times absolutely dangerous to use outside applications, for if the skin is simply cleared the disease is likely to attack some internal organ of the body, where it may prove fatal to life itself. But in purifying the blood the cure is natural, permanent and without any injury.

Miss Beatrice Shanksy, 102 East 82d street, New York city, says:

"My work is very hard on the nerves, and I had become very nervous. I was always tired and worn out when night came. I was pale, and was getting very thin, and I did not feel like eating. Every little thing upset me, and I suffered a great deal from nervous headache. When I was feeling as though I could not stand it much longer. Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy was recommended to me. Some other members of my family had taken it a couple of years ago, and it did them so much good I decided to try it. I never took any other medicine that helped me as much as this did, and I am grateful to Dr. Greene for his wonderful remedy. I gained flesh rapidly, and after taking two bottles, now have a splendid color. My nerves are strong, and I no longer feel the strain of my work upon them. Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy has done for me what nothing else could do, and now I am able to do my work without being all dragged out when the day is done. I know Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy to be a splendid remedy for all business women, because it will keep them from breaking down under the nervous strain."

It is letters like these which prove the wonderful power of Dr. Greene's Nervura, the great blood and nerve remedy. By the use of this marvelous medicine the system is cleansed, giving a clear and healthy bloom, and freeing the complexion from blotches and pimples. It is nature's own remedy, a purely vegetable and perfectly harmless compound, the discovery of the celebrated Boston physician, Dr. Greene, of 101 Fifth Avenue, New York city, who can always be consulted free of charge, either personally or by letter.

"Good day, Mordecai," he said in greeting to a rofud merchant Quaker who joined him. "I see you also looking. What think you our Virginia hot bloods will brew next in their den of iniquity?"

The Quaker frowned. "I love them not," he answered. "What saith the Scriptures? 'For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds.'"

"Gentlemen of birth and wealth, forsooth," continued Galloway angrily, "and yet prating like the veriest clouts of Independence and brotherhood! Whose was the bill to separate from Great Britain? Richard Henry Lee's. And who has written the Declaration that is to be thrust beneath the delegates' noses tomorrow? Thomas Jefferson. These Virginians! Would we had never heard of Virginia before we came to this!"

"Look you!" He broke off and pointed with his stick where a coach bowed along High street. It was richly furnished and bore arms on its panels. On the cushions, exquisitely dressed in a white uniform, sat a blocky, military looking man with bushy wig and foreign mustachios. He wore a cocked hat.

"Tis M. Piarne," said the Quaker. "These French parasites with powder to peddle, Friend Joseph, would joy to see the colonies plunged into bloody strife. They would batten on our extremity, for whosoever the carcass is, there the eagles be gathered together!"

"French officers!" ejaculated Galloway. "Ay, or adventurers! Mayhap M. Piarne goes to see the precious envoy whose newcoming the town gapes about."

"He is to be received?"

"Tomorrow afternoon. 'Tis an open secret. Notice was sent the house this morning."

"Twas averred in the street but now that he is come from Louis XVI."

"Let them jabber!" grumbled Galloway. "Little store is to be set by these fine envoys. I mind me when the Frenchman came to the congress last November. You heard of that, mayhap. There was the same excitement; a committee appointed, too. I remember. John Jay was upon it. They met the personage in a room in Carpenter's hall, and what think you they found? Why, a little old frog eater with a club-foot, who when they asked him for his authority drew his hand across his throat, and says he, 'Gentlemen, I shall take care of my head!' That was all they could get out of him. Some imbecile bollix. And even then there were those who saw great signs in it. A pest on all such, say I!"

The Quaker shook his head doubtfully. "Yet there is much hoped for from this present message," he said. "I heard it on good authority some months ago that a French marquis was to come hither. 'Twas said Benjamin Franklin had written of the matter from London. Mayhap this is the same."

"Bosh!" sniffed Galloway. "'Tis absurd, I say, the faith that is put in such a vain and empty hope! I do know that half the delegates have some such folly in their heads. The Declaration is to be offered for signing tomorrow, and, look you, it is in the minds of some members to retard action upon it, hoping such a message from France may bolster faint hearts."

"Thou dost not think they will sign, then?"

"God forbid!" rejoined Galloway fervently. "I cannot believe we are so near madness as that. And yet I would that naught had been heard of a message from France. Methinks tomorrow will be warm. Good night to you, Mordecai."

As the two friends talked the chiming bells clanged from Christ church, and just as the tones sounded a stout-trunked old man with a shrewd, simple face under a broad hat lifted the latch of a nearby gate which barred an oblong green yard from the street.

Therein under a mulberry tree where yellow cabbage butterflies went kissing wings a chubby woman was sitting by a table whereon stood some books and a glass bottle containing a two headed snake in spirits. Two tousled children rolled and romped unheeded under foot. The film of twilight was falling from a cooling sky.

"You are late, father," the woman said as the old man greeted her. "Supper is almost ready. Young Mr. Jefferson has sent word that he will be here this evening. I do hope," she added good naturedly, "that you won't sit up all night again over that tiresome paper he is writing. Laws! One would think it had been a real speech."

She ritt to fetch a dish of tea, and her father sat down in his chair and took off his hat. His head was bald, with a fringe of white hair. He was mopping his forehead with a large kerchief when she returned with the tea.

"Bless me!" she said as the gate clicked. "Here is some one to see you already. A young man and handsome," she whispered, as he came nearer. "But how pale!" It was Armand.

"Is this Dr. Franklin?" he inquired.

"It is."

"Sir," said Armand, "a packet was given secretly into your hands to hold for me some time since, sealed with a red seal bearing four lances."

Dr. Franklin drew his brows together with a glance of surprise and shook his head.

"Surely you have received it?"

There was a curious ring of anxiety in the tone that caused Dr. Franklin to glance sharply at his questioner. The scrutiny satisfied him, for the look of suspicion that had been stiffened by the strenuous times faded into his habitual benevolence.

"I recall none such," he answered gravely. "What name did it bear?"

"It bore no name." The tone shook now with a confusion of apprehension.

"I fear that is all the more reason that I could not have forgot it. These are troublous days, sir, and faith not always to be relied upon. To whom did you intrust this document?"

Something like fear had come into the first time noted with concern his agitation and pallor.

"To a young lady of Virginia."

"I am sorry, sir, deeply sorry," said the old man, "but no such packet has been put into my hands at any time."

"Poor young man!" sighed the motherly woman a few minutes later as she set the table for supper. "What think you could have been in it, father? He looked as if it had meant life or death to him."

Armand walked slowly through several side streets to the Red Lion tavern, on Sassafras street, one of the less pretentious inns. Here in a dim parlor on the ground floor waited the occupant of the fine coach which had roused the spleen of Joseph Galloway. His hat was flung on a chair, and he strode up and down, his mustachios bristling with impatience.

"Is this Dr. Franklin?"

As Armand entered he embraced him effusively in the French fashion.

"All goes well," he cried. "I have been discreet and have done all you instructed. The congress has named three members to receive you tomorrow at 1 o'clock. Ventrebleu! With the Declaration hanging fire you may believe how eager they are. I have brought your clothes too. Nom de Dieu!" he exclaimed, holding Armand's arms affectionately. "To know you were in a British prison! Thank God you escaped their clutches, and just in the nick of time too! You shall tell me about it one day."

"Piarne!" Armand broke in upon the other's chatter. "Piarne! The letter! I have not got it."

"Not got it?" Piarne repeated in amazed surprise.

"No. I sent it here to Philadelphia to Dr. Franklin. I did not tell you this, since I expected to find it here. Well, I have seen Dr. Franklin, and it has not been delivered."

Piarne's face was a study of dismay. "And what will you do?"

Armand had no time to reply, for at that moment there came a knock at the door, and it opened.

Instantly Piarne bent low in a series of bows to Armand.

"Accept my most profound salutations, monseigneur," he said in tones of elaborate ceremony. "I shall be pleased to accompany you on your distinguished errand tomorrow afternoon."

"M. Piarne," said Armand easily, "this is my good friend, Captain Jarrot. Au revoir, monsieur—jusqu'au matin!"

Long Search for Mother Discloses Numerous Marriages.

Appleton, Wis., March 29.—Mrs. James Vanderlinden after a search of 43 years for her mother, has learned that her parent lives at Schuylkill, Pa.

Mrs. Vanderlinden since her third birthday has not seen her mother. Her father and mother separated in Jefferson county, Wis. She went to live with her father, who has married three times since. The mother has recently wrote to the postmaster at Cheboygan, Mich., for the address of an aunt, who was found in this way at Newport, Wash. From this aunt Mrs. Vanderlinden obtained the address of her mother. Mrs. Vanderlinden also learned of a full sister, who was born after her father and mother separated, and of 10 half sisters born to her mother by later husbands.

When Doctors Were Slaves.

Romans of means had physicians in their own houses. These men were slaves, for, odd as it seems, many Roman slaves were accomplished in literature, art and science. At one time the selling price of a slave doctor was about the equivalent of $300 in our money.

After the time of Julius Caesar, who encouraged physicians, the art began to "lift its head" in Rome, and later men of character and position, though generally foreigners, entered the profession. Some of them accumulated large fortunes, and one made the equivalent of at least $500,000 in a few years.

The Soda That's Right

It's said to be the best in town—this soda of mine—that's just because it's made right, flavored right and served right. There's a lot in knowing how to do things right, even in the soda water business. I will serve only pure crushed fruits and fruit juices and aim to give you better service than at any fountain in the city.
